Love, Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa Deevia Bhana, 2017-10-25 Love Sex and Teenage Sexual Cultures in South Africa interrupts the relative silence around teenage constructions of love in South Africa Against the backdrop of gender inequalities HIV and violence the book situates teenage constructions of love and romance within the wider social and cultural context underwritten by the histories of apartheid chronic unemployment poverty and the endless struggle to survive By drawing on focus group discussions with African teenage men and women the book addresses teenage Africans as active agents providing a more nuanced picture of their desires and their dilemmas through which sexuality and love are experienced The chapters in the book conceptualise desiring love material love pure love forced love and fearing love It argues that love is intrinsically linked to cultural practices and material realities which mold particular formations of teenage masculinities and femininities This book will be of interest to academics undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in sociology HIV health and gender studies development and postcolonial studies and African studies For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen, 2017-07-05 For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For The Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen's focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest The Love Commandments Edmund N. J. Richards,2015-10-01 This book tells the stories of notable historical figures who by resisting patriarchal laws condemning adultery gay and lesbian sex and sex across the boundaries of religion and race brought about lasting social and political change Constitutional scholar David A J Richards investigates the lives of leading transgressive artists social critics and activists including George Eliot Benjamin Britten Christopher Isherwood Bayard Rustin James Baldwin Eleanor Roosevelt and Margaret Mead Richards shows how ethical empowerment motivated by love allowed these figures to resist the injustices of anti-Semitism racism sexism and homophobia leading to the constitutional condemnation of these political evils in the United States Britain and beyond Love and law thus grow together and this book shows how and why Drawing from developmental psychology including studies of trauma political theory the history of social movements literature biography and law this book will be a thought provoking tool for anyone interested in civil rights A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance POLITICS OF LOVE AND NATIONALISM (KANCHONMOTI TO RUPALIM) Dr. Umakanta Hazarika, 2019-11-27 No culture is apolitical and no politics is acultural Culture being the outcome of collective endeavor represents and reflects dreams desire pride pain and glory of human life It constructs the road of civilization and encourages all to go ahead even under failure and success Culture refers to the consciousness about life and social relations in economic and political activities in a society including values social consciousness and morality Economic and political practices are the basis and container of culture while thoughts about and understanding of economic and political practices are the main content of culture Love, Sex, and Desire in Modern Egypt L. L. Wynn, 2018-11-23 Cairo is a city obsessed with honor and respectability and love affairs Sara a working class woman has an affair with a married man and becomes pregnant only to be abandoned by him Ayah and Zeid a respectably engaged couple argue over whether Ayah's friend is a prostitute or a virgin Malak a European belly dancer who sometimes gets paid for sex wants to be loved by a man who won't treat her like a whore just because she's a dancer and Alia a Christian banker who left her abusive husband is the mistress of a wealthy Muslim man Haroun who encourages business by hosting risqu parties for other men and their mistresses Set in transnational Cairo over two decades Love Sex and Desire in Modern Egypt is an ethnography that explores female respectability male honor and Western theories and fantasies about Arab society L L Wynn uses stories of love affairs to interrogate three areas of classic anthropological theory mimesis kinship and gift She develops a broad picture of how individuals love and desire within a cultural and political system that structures the possibilities of and penalties for going against sexual and gender norms Wynn demonstrates that love is at once a moral horizon an attribute that naturally inheres in particular social relations a social phenomenon strengthened through cultural concepts of gift and kinship and an emotion deeply felt and desired by individuals
