Love Every Leaf The Life Of Landscape Architect Cornelia Hahn Oberlander:

Love Every Leaf Kathy Stinson, 2008 Tells the remarkable story of Cornelia Hahn Oberlander who at a young age and in the wake of Hitler's persecution of the Jews pursued her dream of becoming a landscape architect struggling to carve out a place for herself in a male dominated profession Women, Modernity, and Landscape Architecture Sonja

Dümpelmann, John Beardsley, 2015-02-11 Modernity was critically important to the formation and evolution of landscape architecture yet its histories in the discipline are still being written This book looks closely at the work and influences of some of the least studied figures of the era established and less well known female landscape architects who pursued modernist ideals in their designs The women discussed in this volume belong to the pioneering first two generations of professional landscape architects and were outstanding in the field They not only developed notable practices but some also became leaders in landscape architectural education as the first professors in the discipline or prolific lecturers and authors As early professionals who navigated the world of a male dominated intellectual and menial work force they were exponents of modernity In addition many personalities discussed in this volume were either figures of transition between tradition and modernism like Silvia Crowe Maria Teresa Parpagliolo or they fully embraced and furthered the modernist agenda like Rosa Kliass Cornelia Oberlander The chapters offer new perspectives and contribute to the development of a more balanced and integrated landscape architectural historiography of the twentieth century Contributions come from practitioners and academics who discuss women based in USA Canada Brazil New Zealand South Africa the former USSR Sweden Britain Germany Austria France and Italy Ideal reading for those studying landscape history women's studies and cultural geography

Women of Steel and Stone Anna Lewis, 2014-01-01 What caused a few women to counter the trends and choose these professions What difficulties did they face in fields so new to them And did the influences that marked their early histories reveal themselves in their work and careers Anna Lewis's book raises these questions central for young people considering the future Denise Scott Brown cofounder of Venturi Scott Brown and Associates Women of Steel and Stone tells the stories of 22 determined women who helped build the world we live in Thoroughly researched and engaging profiles describe these builders and designers strengths passions and interests as they were growing up where those traits took them and what they achieved Inspiring a new generation of girls who are increasingly encouraged to engage in STEM Science Technology Engineering Math education and professions the biographies stress work perseverance creativity and overcoming challenges and obstacles Set against the backdrop of landmark events such as the women's suffrage movement the civil rights movement the industrial revolution and more the profiles offer not only important historical context but also a look at some of the celebrated architects and engineers working today Sidebars on related topics source notes and a bibliography make this an invaluable resource for further study Anna M Lewis is an award winning toy inventor and creativity advocate Her company Ideasplash promotes child creativity through her writing websites and classes and presentations in schools She has contributed to Appleseeds Odyssey and Toy Design Monthly and currently teaches for Young Rembrandts an afterschool art program as well as classes on cartooning game design arts and crafts monster making and painting Landscape Architecture Jamie Liversedge, Robert Holden, 2014-03-03 Aimed at prospective and new students this book gives a comprehensive introduction to the nature and practice of landscape architecture the professional skills required and the latest developments After discussing the history of the profession the book explains the design process through principles such as hierarchy human scale unity harmony asymmetry colour form and texture It looks at how design is represented through both drawing and modelling and through digital techniques such as CAD and the use of GIS Geographic Information Systems This is followed by an examination of project management and landscape management techniques Finally the book explores educational and employment opportunities and the future of the profession in the context of climate change and sustainability Illustrated with international examples of completed projects Landscape Architecture provides an invaluable one stop resource for anyone considering studying or a career in this field Landscape Architecture ,2008 Quill & Quire ,2008 School Library Journal ,2008 The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,2008 Jewish Book World ,2008 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Who's who in the West ,1998
