To realize the McDonald's service vision, the organization believes in strengthening their team and ensures to deliver the right skills and knowledge to the right person for getting the right job done. The strength, for making the strong team players to shine under the Golden Arches lies in the People Practice and Development Program.

HR practices:

The field of HRM comes into existence in the result of these questions:

- How did people come to be employees in their organization?
- How were they selected?
- Why do they come to work on regular basis?
- How do they know what to do on their jobs?
- How does management know if the employees are performing adequately?
- And if they are not, what can be done about it?
- Will today employees be adequately prepared for the technologically advanced work the organization will require of them in the years ahead?
- What is the compensation process?

The HR department of McDonald's fulfills all the requirement of these questions in the true sense of the meaning. As HR department deals with people McDonald's strongly believe in well being of people because it is a known quotation that:

"If you take over the liabilities of your employees they will take yours"

Threshold to Valley Forge Sheilah D. Vance, 2025-02-28 Threshold to Valley Forge adds an important untold chapter to Pennsylvania's Revolutionary War history Through extensive research Vance illuminates how six days in Gulph Mills shaped the Continental Army's path to Valley Forge while highlighting the complex challenges faced by Pennsylvanians during this pivotal time The Honorable Robert P Casey Jr United States Senator for Pennsylvania When George Washington and the Continental Army marched into Gulph Mills in December 1777 they were uncheered by any recent triumph Washington s army had lost at Brandywine at Germantown and at Paoli and the British had captured Philadelphia the largest city in the American colonies Even worse the Continental Congress had recently visited the patriot camp in Whitemarsh to inspect Washington s work questioning if he was the right man to lead the Continental Army Members of the Continental Congress and local legislators pushed for one more battle with the British before going into winter quarters but the soldiers and generals were in no condition to engage the enemy The army was bruised famished and despondent At the same time the new nation was trying to secure its existence The states began debating whether to adopt the Articles of Confederation that the Continental Congress had passed in the previous month Benjamin Franklin and the members of the American Commission were in France lobbying the King Louis XVI and his government to officially support the United States From December 12 19 1777 Washington s Army encamped in the towering hills of Gulph Mills Pennsylvania fifteen miles from Philadelphia Known as the Threshold to Valley Forge the Gulph Mills Encampment is often forgotten or minimized falling as it did between the more famous military engagements of the Philadelphia Campaign and the well known experience of the army at Valley Forge Yet the Gulph Mills Encampment was a significant microcosm of the Revolutionary War It included encounters with the British and the local community little food clothing and shelter for the troops the celebration of the new nation s first Thanksgiving and tough decisions by Washington including his momentous decision to make Valley Forge the army s winter quarters Based largely on writings and documents from soldiers generals local residents the Continental Congress the British Army and others this book reveals the fascinating details of George Washington s and the Continental Army s last stand before and as they moved into winter quarters at Valley Forge 2008
