Guidelines and Games for Teaching Efficient Braille Reading Myrna R. Olson, Sally S. Mangold, 1981 Activities for Teaching Braille More Efficiently at the Beginning Level Foundations of Education: Instructional strategies for teaching children and youths with visual impairments M. Cay Holbrook, Alan J. Koenig, 2000 Perkins Activity and Resource Guide - Chapter 4: Functional Academics Mary Jane Clark, 2013-09-26 This chapter is designed to address the needs of individuals with visual and multiple disabilities who may not be able to follow all parts of a traditional academic curriculum As educators our primary goal should be to provide students with skills that will be of use throughout their lives Skill acquisition often takes longer for students with multiple disabilities and they are not always able to generalize them into other settings For this reason it is important to identify skills that will help prepare students to lead the most independent lives possible and to provide many opportunities to practice them Foundations of Braille Literacy Evelyn J. Rex, 1994 This ground breaking text addresses the teaching of braille reading and writing in the context of general literacy Employing theoretical frameworks and approaches to teaching print reading and writing and practical applications for instruction in braille literacy this innovative book can be used both in university training programs and by practicing educators working with braille learners Foundations of Braille Literacy also includes perspectives on literacy the history of literacy for people who are blind the learning processes of people who are blind and assessment of braille literacy A Field Guide for the Sight-Impaired Reader Andrew Leibs, 1999-12-30 The first reference book written for the sight impaired student and those who serve their needs A Field Guide for the Sight Impaired Reader explains how to locate obtain and integrate all forms of aid to construct a world of reading equal to that of the fully sighted reader It profiles the major blind service organizations explores specialized formats such as Braille large print and electronic texts and shows what technology readers require and where to find it It provides comprehensive lists of audio and large print publishers a state by state listing of resource agencies for the blind and valuable internet resources to assist students and their teachers and librarians in obtaining the texts they need to succeed in both academic and pleasure reading Beginning with thorough coverage of the national organizations in place for visually handicapped readers and how they can assist both students and librarians A Field Guide for the Sight Impaired Reader outlines the types of technology available to readers and the companies that manufacture it Available software braille resources large print resources and internet web sites are all discussed in detail with contact information Also included are reading strategies for a variety of academic subject areas a detailed listing of state resources with addresses phone numbers and web sites an exhaustive list of audio publishers and a list of books compiled from recommended reading lists such as the American Library Association s Outstanding Books for the College Bound A discussion of the Americans with Disabilities Act and its impact on libraries is provided as well as funding sources for librarians who want to provide more materials and technology for their sight impaired patrons than their budgets might allow With the encouragement and resources provided here sight impaired students who felt the world of reading was closed off to them can now create a reading life as rich as that of any fully sighted student Beginning with Braille Anna M. Swenson,1999

Beginning with braille provides a wealth of effective activities for promoting literacy at the early stages of braille instruction The text includes creative and practical strategies for designing and delivering quality braille instruction and teacher friendly suggestions for many areas such as reading aloud to young children selecting and making early tactile books and teaching tactile and hand movement skills This book also includes tips on designing worksheets introducing braille contractions teaching the use of the braillewriter and facilitating the writing process in braille Chapters also address guidelines for individualizing instruction the literacy needs of students with additional disabilities and assessment of student progress in developing literacy skills Braille Literacy Diane P. Wormsley,2004 Whether students learning problems stem from additional physical or cognitive disabilities the inability to speak English well or difficulty in making the transition from print to braille this resource will help you help them Equally effective for teaching braille reading and writing to children or adults Braille Literacy uses a functional approach based on concepts and vocabulary that have meaning and utility to the student

Learning Through Touch Mike Mclinden,Steve Mccall,2016-04-29 Written to assist teachers and other professionals who support children with visual impairment and additional difficulties this text examines the role of touch in developing effective teaching and learning The book is divided into eleven chapters that provide useful background information about the sense of touch and consider how potential barriers to independent learning through touch can be reduced through structuring appropriate learning experiences A series of reflective activities are included which are designed to draw out key issues from relevant chapters and invite the reader to explore the implications for his or her practice A number of these activities are designed to cross reference with relevant extension standards from the National SEN Specialist Standards for teachers and recommendations about further reading and teaching resources are provided throughout the book This text will be useful for teachers and learning support staff working with children who have visual impairment and additional difficulties It will also have relevance to other professionals working with children with severe and complex needs who wish to understand more about the role of touch in developing effective learning experiences Learning, Education, and Support of Deafblind Children and Adults Timothy S. Hartshorne,Marleen J. Janssen,Walter Wittich,2025-09-11 Learning Education and Support of Deafblind Children and Adults presents the latest research on topics relevant for learners with deafblindness based on the most important studies of the last two decades The diversity of deafblind people is explored with the authors bringing together relevant information from the fields of congenital acquired and age related deafblindness and those who are deafblind from different syndromes and etiologies Opening with a case study of a deafblind adult who shares his perspectives on barriers and facilitators in deafblind education the volume then presents chapters by leading researchers from around the world on deafblindness Bridging the gap between research and practice by the researchers themselves along with deafblind individuals the authors describe their essential research findings and interpret them in terms of valuable implications for educational and rehabilitation practice Divided into seven sections the themes covered include the identification of deafblind persons specific learning areas and interdisciplinary support learning self determination and education participation work and recreation family perspective professionalization and interdisciplinary approaches and research technology and innovations With over fifty contributors this volume brings together the current international scholarship on deafblindness and aims to stimulate new research on this rare but significant disability
