Modern Etruscans Chiara Zampieri, Martina Piperno, Bart Van den Bossche, 2023-10-16 L trurie est la mode French archaeologist Salomon Reinach bluntly stated in 1927 Since the beginning of the nineteenth century Etruria had not only been attracting the attention of archaeologists and specialists of all sorts but it had also been a fascinating and in some cases captivating destination for poets novelists painters and sculptors from all over Europe This volume deals with the impact of the constantly expanding knowledge on the Etruscans and their mysterious civilisation on Italian French English and German literature arts and culture with particular regard to the modernist period 1890 1950 The volume brings a distinctive point of view to the subject by approaching it from an interdisciplinary and comparative perspective and by looking at a quite diverse range of topics and artefacts which includes but is not limited to the study of drawings art works travel essays novels cooking recipes schoolbooks photographs and movies By exploring a new paradigm to understand ancient cultures beyond the traditional ideas and models of reception of the classics and by challenging the alleged fracture between the so called two cultures of humanities and natural sciences Modern Etruscans will be of interest to scholars from various disciplines Designed as a learning tool for university courses on the interplay between literature and science in the twentieth century it is suited as recommended reading for students in the humanities Die Altertumswissenschaften an der Universität
