Prizeman,2019-07-25 This book incorporates UK and international case studies and essays to identify the overlaps in the interests of energy and building conservation The relevance and adjustments of qualitative and quantitative frames of reference are introduced alongside the various expertise of the contributors architects designers conservation consultants and academics The second part of the book showcases sustainable domestic and non domestic heritage projects translating the preceding research into information that practitioners can use in their everyday work The book will appeal to architecture students newly qualified professionals and conservation architects and will enhance readers ambitions so that they feel equipped and inspired to work with old buildings sensitively creatively and sustainably Patronage and Power in the Medieval Welsh March David Stephenson,2021-11-15 This is the first full length study of a Welsh family of the thirteenth to fifteenth centuries who were not drawn from the princely class Though they were of obscure and modest origins the patronage of great lords of the March such as the Mortimers of Wigmore or the de Bohun earls of Hereford helped them to become prominent in Wales and the March and increasingly in England They helped to bring down anyone opposed by their patrons like Llywelyn prince of Wales in the thirteenth century or Edward II in the 1320s In the process they sometimes faced great danger but they contrived to prosper and unusually for Welshmen one branch became Marcher lords themselves Another was prominent in Welsh and English government becoming diplomats and courtiers of English kings and over some five generations many achieved knighthood Their fascinating careers perhaps hint at a more open society than is sometimes envisaged Nikolaus Pevsner Susie Harries,2011-08-18 Born Nikolai Pewsner into a Russian Jewish family in Leipzig in 1902 Nikolaus Pevsner was a dedicated scholar who pursued a promising career as an academic in Dresden and G ttingen When in 1933 Jews were no longer permitted to teach in German universities he lost his job and looked for employment in England Here over a long and amazingly industrious career he made himself an authority on the exploration and enjoyment of English art and architecture so much so that his magisterial county by county series of 46 books on The Buildings of England first published 1951 74 is usually referred to simply as Pevsner As a critic academic and champion of Modernism Pevsner became a central figure in the architectural consensus that accompanied post war reconstruction as a general practitioner of architectural history he covered an astonishing range from Gothic cathedrals and Georgian coffee houses to the Festival of Britain and Brutalist tower blocks Susie Harries explores the truth about Nikolaus Pevsner s reported sympathies with elements of Nazi ideology his internment in England as an enemy alien and his sometimes painful assimilation into his country of exile His Heftchen secret diaries he kept from the age of 14 for another sixty years reveal hidden aspirations and anxieties as do his numerous letters he wrote to his wife Lola every day that they were apart Harries is the first biographer to have read Pevsner's private papers and through them to have seen into the workings of his mind Her definitive biography is not only rich in context and far ranging but is also brought to life by quotations from Pevsner himself He was born a Jew but converted to Lutheranism trained in the rigour of German scholarship he became an Everyman in his copious commissions publications broadcasts and lectures on art architecture design education town planning social housing conservation Mannerism the Bauhaus the Victorians Zeitgeist Englishness and how a nation's character may or must be reflected in its art His life as an outsider yet an insider at the heart of English art history illuminates both the predicament and the prowess of the continental migrants who did so much to shape British culture after 1945
