He Said What Victoria Zackheim, 2011 gender studies Exit Laughing Victoria Zackheim, 2012-05-08 There's nothing funny about dying or is there Malachy McCourt Jacquelyn Mitchard and 22 more share hilarious and moving stories of confronting death Exit Laughing makes death more approachable as it reveals the funny side of passing on As painful as it is to lose a loved one Exit Laughing shows us that in times of grief humor can help us with coping and even healing Best selling author Amy Ferris explains how her mother's dementia led to a permanent ban from an airline Ellen Sussman writes of flying her mother's body home and watching the burial wardrobe spill out on the baggage carousel Broadway and television actor Richard McKenzie shares the riotous story of a funeral procession led by a lost hearse Bonnie Garvin even manages to find a heavy dose of dark humor in her parents' three unsuccessful attempts at a double suicide These stories along with tales from Joshua Braff Barbara Graham Dianne Rinehart and more constitute a book whose purpose is to remind readers that when dealing with illness aging and dying there is an important place for laugh out loud humor The Guy's Guide to Feminism Michael Kaufman, Michael Kimmel, 2011-10-25 Written by and for men the ultimate guide to becoming a strong male ally in the 21st century In just one generation age old ideas about women have been swept aside but what does that have to do with men Authors Michael Kaufman and Michael Kimmel two of the world's leading male advocates of gender equality believe it has everything to do with them and that it's crucial to educate men about feminism in order for them to fully understand just how important and positive these changes have been for them Kaufman and Kimmel address these issues in The Guy's Guide to Feminism Hip and accessible it contains nearly a hundred entries from Autonomy to Zero Tolerance written in varying tones humorous satirical irreverent thoughtful and serious and in many forms top ten lists comics interviews mini stories and more Each topic celebrates the ongoing gains that are improving the lives of women and girls and what that really means for men Informal and fun yet substantive and intelligent The Guy's Guide to Feminism illustrates how understanding and supporting feminism can help men live richer fuller and happier lives A Year of Writing Dangerously Barbara Abercrombie, 2012-05-08 In this collection of anecdotes lessons quotes and prompts author and writing teacher Barbara Abercrombie provides a delightfully varied cornucopia of inspiration nuts and bolts solutions hand holding commiseration and epiphany fueling insights from fellow writers including Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winners and Abercrombie's students who have gone from paralyzed to published Dancing at the Shame Prom Amy Ferris, Hollye Dexter, 2012-09-11 Presents a collection of autobiographical essays in which the authors reveal intensely private events in their lives which had a life changing impact including such authors as Nina Burleigh Victoris Zackheim Marcia Yerman and Colleen Haggerty Beyond Belief Cami Ostman, Susan Tive, 2013-04-02 Beyond Belief addresses what happens when women of extreme religions decide to walk away Editors Susan Tive a former Orthodox Jew and Cami Ostman a de converted fundamentalist born again Christian have compiled a collection of powerful personal stories written by women of varying ages races and religious backgrounds who share one commonality they've all experienced and rejected extreme religions. Covering a wide range of religious communities including Evangelical Catholic Jewish Mormon Muslim Calvinist Moonie and Jehovah's Witness and containing contributions from authors like Julia Scheeres, Jesus Land, and the stories in Beyond Belief reveal how these women became involved, what their lives were like, and why they came to the decision to eventually abandon their faiths. The authors shed a bright light on the rigid expectations and misogyny so often built into religious orthodoxy, yet they also explain the lure why so many women are attracted to these lifestyles, what they find that's beautiful about living a religious life, and why leaving can be not only very difficult but also bittersweet.

A Life Changing Journey with a Master

Marguerite Jalving, 2018-02-21 Marguerite Jalving is a person with both feet on the ground. With her high heels and elegant style, she stands with her strong temperament firm in her opinions. She gives vent to spontaneous anger as well as enthusiasm and sometimes less humble thoughts to the Master when she thinks He goes too far. At the same time, she feels the deepest affection and humble surrender for the divine, which is this book's paradox. You will find the book both humorous and deeply devotional, a picture of a human being's dialogue with the divine with its dreams and heavenly visions. Illustrated with the master's artwork via Jalving.

The Holy Sh!t Moment

James Fell, 2019-01-22 Motivation expert James Fell teaches readers how to skip the hard part and go directly from intention to committed action. After years of helping people change, James Fell had a sudden insight about sudden insight: significant life change doesn't often come from just putting one foot in front of the other, carefully observing and altering habits, slogging through baby steps toward new behavior. Rather, the research reveals that serious life turnaround usually happens in a moment with a flash of inspiration. Epiphany arrives like a lightning strike, rapidly shifting the recipient of such enlightenment onto a new path that creates a better life. Motivational psychology has traditionally focused on slow and steady, gradual improvement over time to reach a desired goal, whether it's weight loss, career change, battling addiction, or success in relationships. We've been told since toddlerhood that the tortoise beats the hare. But through compelling science and powerful stories, James Fell shows us that the hare has the edge: overwhelming desire can be awakened fast and furiously. When you learn to become attuned to that sensation of sudden awakening, a new path can be followed almost effortlessly because it feels like destiny. Everyone has the ability to experience the lightning strike. The Holy Sh!t Moment will teach you how to create a life-changing epiphany and go directly from intention to action.

Social Change in Syria

Sulayman N. Khalaf, 2020-10-25 Studying a rural village in northern Syria during a period of tremendous social and political change, 1940s to 1970s, this book offers a unique perspective on how agrarian transformations in land distribution and its use deeply affected social and political relations among a rural community. Embedding the personal with the local and the global, this work traces the seeds of social, political, and economic struggles that are still important and unfolding in Syria, forty years on changes in social relations brought about by land policy and technological modernization, divisions and connections between urban and rural locations, shifts in education, and immigration Thematically the study is divided into two parts the first concerns the historical socio economic and political changes occurring in Syria from the beginning of the twentieth century and the second concerns the life histories of particular actors and their perspectives on social changes This book is the edited and updated version of Khalaf s original work including an updating chapter which brings invaluable insight about the village and its people at the aftermath of ISIS and the destruction of the war in Syria Focusing on the village community of Hawi Al Hawa this intensely knowledgeable and personal account a rare combination brings village life in Syria strikingly close The volume is an important contribution to the fields of anthropology social sciences Syrian and Middle East studies

Muslim Women's Lived Experiences and Intersectional Identities

Puspa Melati Wan,Saiqa Anne Qureshi,Rosila Bee Mohd Hussain,2025-02-28 This volume takes a global perspective on intersectionality embodied by Muslim women It addresses questions such as balancing multiple identities lived experiences and complex realities and the role of faith in social roles The chapters debunk the idea of Islam or gender being monoliths They layer faith over gender across the globe and consider migration as an important factor thereby exploring intersectional identities that are understudied and under evaluated The volume overall brings to life Islamic women s lives in all their richness and differences with discussions on social roles positions initiatives and occupations across regions It provides recommendations and suggestions for readers to understand the complex realities of Muslim women as well as serves as a guide for practitioners and policy makers

Music, Life, and Changing Times: Selected Correspondence Between British Composers Elizabeth Maconchy and Grace Williams, 1927-77

Jenny Doctor,2020-03-25 At this book s core is a critical edition of letters exchanged over 50 years between Anglo Irish composer Elizabeth Maconchy 1907 1994 and the Welsh composer Grace Williams 1906 1977 These two innovative and talented women are highly regarded for their music their professional activities and their roles in British musical life The edition comprises around 200 letters from 1927 to 1977 none of which have been published before along with scholarly introductions and contextualizations Interwoven commentaries in tandem with carefully constructed appendices frame the letter texts Moreover the commentaries and introductory essays highlight and track the development of important themes and issues that characterize the study of twentieth century British music today This edition presents a dialogue through both sides of a unique correspondence offering an alternative commentary on musical and cultural developments of this period
