orders in a desperate attempt to mitigate the spread of the coronavirus COVID 19 has impacted many different aspects of society from politics and economics to the psychological well being of citizens and the list will continue to grow as the spread of the coronavirus persists. While it is impossible to fathom the way COVID 19 will change our usual way of life, there are prevailing concerns that the community currently faces. What are the psychological impacts of a pandemic? How do we enhance the collective resilience of the community during a pandemic? How do we cope with mental health issues during a pandemic? How do we deal with bereavement during a pandemic? How can we support healthcare workers and emergency responders during a pandemic? These are just some of many important concerns that influence the way we cope with the COVID 19 outbreak. There is therefore an urgent need to enhance our understanding and level of preparedness against Covid 19 and pandemic in general. To that end, this edited book How to Prepare for the Next Pandemic: Behavioural Sciences Insights for Practitioners and Policymakers aims to examine the impacts pandemic have on our society from a behavioural sciences perspective and to identify solutions that practitioners and policymakers can adopt to combat the spread of COVID 19 in this new operating environment.
