Bearing Witness Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2022-08-31 Much like theology itself the experience of trauma has the potential to reach into almost any aspect of life refusing to fit within the tramlines A follow up to the 2020 volume Feminist Trauma Theologies Bearing Witness explores further into global intersectional and as yet relatively unexplored perspectives With a particular focus on poverty gender and sexualities race and ethnicity and health in dialogue with trauma theology the book seeks to demonstrate both the far reaching and intersectional nature of trauma encouraging creative and ground breaking theological reflections on trauma and constructions of theology in the light of the trauma experience A unique set of insights into the real life experience of trauma the book includes chapters authored by a diverse group of academic theologians practitioners and activists The result is a theology which extend far into the public square

Collective Trauma and the Armenian Genocide Pamela Steiner, 2021-02-25 In this pathbreaking study Pamela Steiner deconstructs the psychological obstacles that have prevented peaceful settlements to longstanding issues The book re examines more than 100 years of destructive ethno religious relations among Armenians Turks and Azerbaijanis through the novel lens of collective trauma The author argues that a focus on embedded transgenerational collective trauma is essential to achieving more trusting productive and stable relationships in this and similar contexts The book takes a deep dive into history analysing the traumatic events examining and positing how they motivated the actions of key players both victims and perpetrators and revealing how profoundly these traumas continue to manifest today among the three peoples stymying healing and inhibiting achievement of a basis for positive change The author then proposes a bold new approach to conflict resolution as a complement to other perspectives such as power based analyses and international human rights Addressing the psychological core of the conflict the author argues that a focus on embedded collective trauma is essential in this and similar arenas

Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention Renée Bradford Garcia, Elizabeth C. Pomeroy, 2021-08-18 With clarity and eloquence Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention comprehensively captures the nuance and complexity involved in counseling bereaved and traumatically bereaved persons in all stages of the life cycle Integrating the various models of grief with the authors strengths based framework of grief and loss chapters combine the latest research in evidence based practice with expertise derived from years of psychotherapy with grieving individuals The book walks readers through the main theories of grief counseling from rapport building to assessment to intervention Each chapter concludes with lengthy case scenarios that closely resemble actual counseling sessions to help readers apply their understanding of the chapter s content In the support material on the book s website instructors will find a sample syllabus PowerPoint slides and lists of resources that can be used as student assignments or to enhance classroom learning Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention equips students with the knowledge and skills they need to work effectively with clients experiencing trauma and loss

Constructing Motherhood Identity Against Political Violence Deniz Ülke Arıboğan, Hamoon Khelghat-Doost, 2023-08-22 This volume offers a nuanced understanding of female agency in political violence by reviewing and analyzing the political construction of motherhood as a form of social agency against political violence committed by both state and non state actors in different parts of the world While the international relations discipline has traditionally viewed the relationship between women and violent actors as an exploitative one this book demonstrates that taking maternal bodies seriously creates important intellectual space to examine the types and kinds of violence the discipline of IR takes seriously and the types and kinds of resistance practiced by mothers but often overlooked at least by male mainstream IR Focusing on motherhood as an agency of change this volume will appeal to scholars in the field of gender and international security think tanks working on political and security affairs social activists policymakers an interested public audience as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students undertaking study or research associated with gender and political violence

Motherhood and War D. Cooper, C. Phelan, 2014-07-10 Traditional histories of war have typically explored masculine narratives of military and political action leaving private domestic life relatively unstudied This volume expands our understanding by looking at the relationships between mothers and children and the varied roles both have assumed during periods of armed conflict
