I needed He became the soothing balm to my gaping wounds He became my friend my confidant and then eventually he became something more Where Nash shattered me into a million tiny shards Felix spent two years piecing me back together Even though I was never truly whole after that he never seemed to care He loved me and somehow that was enough Or at least I thought it was until Nash stormed back into town after four years like a tornado overturning all the carefully placed pieces of the life I had built without him I hated him for what he did I hated that he came back But more than anything I hated how much I didn't actually hate him at all In the game of love and war there are rarely ever winners And when secrets are exposed and true intentions are revealed I realize I stand to lose a lot more than I ever could have imagined possible
