Love Rules Marilyn Reynolds, 2001-07 Seventeen year old Lynn experiences surprise discomfort and a new awareness of prejudices and stereotyping when her best friend Kit comes out as a lesbian

Adolescents in the Search for Meaning Mary L. Warner, 2006-03-03 As is painfully evident from the reports of school shootings gang violence dysfunctional family life and from statistics on adolescent suicide many teens live troubled lives Even those who live a normal life still face the challenges adults face but teens are also engaged in establishing independence and finding their identity However few adolescents have the same resources as adults for surviving life challenges Building from the idea that story is a powerful source of meaning particularly those stories that resonate with our own lives this book suggests that the stories of other young adults offer a resource yet to be fully tapped Adolescents in the Search for Meaning begins from the perspective of young adults by sharing the results of a survey of over 1400 teens and also includes the insights of authors of Young Adult Literature The book presents over 120 novels that teens have identified as meaningful as well as books recommended by YA authors and experts in the field of YA literature For any teacher librarian parent or counselor wanting to reach young adults this book is ideal

The Heart Has Its Reasons Michael Cart, Christine A. Jenkins, 2006-03-30 Society does not make it easy for young people regardless of their sexual orientation to find accurate nonjudgmental information about homosexuality It makes it even more difficult for young homosexuals to find positive role models in fiction either written or published expressly for them or if published for adults relevant to them and their lives The Heart Has Its Reasons examines these issues and critically evaluates the body of literature published for young adults that offers homosexual themes and characters Cart and Jenkins chart the evolution of the field of YA literature having GLBTQ gay lesbian bisexual transgendered and or queer questioning content They identify titles that are remarkable either for their excellence or failures noting the stereotypic wrongheaded and outdated books as well as the accurate thoughtful and tactful titles Useful criteria for evaluating books with GLBTQ content are provided Books and resources of all types are reviewed based on a model that uses the category descriptors of Homosexual Visibility Gay Assimilation and Queer Consciousness Community An annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text arranged by subject round out this valuable reference for teachers librarians parents and young adults

Alternative Publishers of Books in North America Byron Anderson, 2006 This directory is a unique reference tool that gathers information on significant alternative presses 126 U S presses 19 Canadian and 18 international presses having either a North American address or distributor Thirty three presses are new to this edition
