Rocchio,2010-07-22 The new realism of Italian cinema after World War II represented and in many ways attempted to contain the turmoil of a society struggling to rid itself of Fascism while fighting off the threat of radical egalitarianism at the same time In this boldly revisionist book Vincent F Rocchio combines Lacanian psychoanalysis with narratology and Marxist critical theory to examine the previously neglected relationship between Neorealist films and the historical spectators they address Rocchio builds his analysis around case studies of the films Rome Open City Bicycle Thieves La Terra Trema Bitter Rice and Senso Through the lens of psychoanalysis he challenges the traditional understanding of Neorealism as a progressive cinema and instead reveals the anxieties it encodes a society in political turmoil an economic system in collapse and a national cinema in ruins while war occupation collaboration and retaliation remain a part of everyday life These case studies demonstrate how Lacanian psychoanalysis can play a key role in analyzing the structure of cinematic discourse and its strategies of containment As one of the first books outside of feminist film theory to bring the ideas of Lacan to theories of cinema this book offers innovative methods that reinvigorate film analysis Clear and detailed insights into both Italian culture and the films under investigation will make this engaging reading for anyone interested in film and cultural studies

Alternation between L1 (Italian) and L2 (English) in Three CLIL and EMI Contexts (2nd Edition) Francesca Costa,2025-05-29 For years the alternation between the L1 and the L2 was banned in language classes since it was thought that this would impair the learning of the second language In recent years however there has been a recognition of the validity of alternation That is why this book aims at investigating the alternation of the L1 and L2 in Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL and English Medium Instruction EMI contexts at three educational levels primary secondary tertiary in Italy To do so an overarching qualitative research approach was applied with both quantitative and qualitative elements The results of the study point at three main pedagogical implications which highlight the originality of this research The first implication is connected to the function of alternation between the L1 and the L2 Alternation played a mainly lexical role to explain specific lexis or at least to provide the students with lexis in both languages English and Italian The second implication highlights the fact that despite the contextual differences that exist the three educational levels primary secondary and tertiary show a very similar use of alternation thereby pointing at similarities more than differences The third implication worth noting is the drive toward and preservation of multilingualism that comes from the use of alternation
