hidden aspirations and anxieties as do his numerous letters he wrote to his wife Lola every day that they were apart Harries is the first biographer to have read Pevsner's private papers and through them to have seen into the workings of his mind Her definitive biography is not only rich in context and far ranging but is also brought to life by quotations from Pevsner himself He was born a Jew but converted to Lutheranism trained in the rigour of German scholarship he became an Everyman in his copious commissions publications broadcasts and lectures on art architecture design education town planning social housing conservation Mannerism the Bauhaus the Victorians Zeitgeist Englishness and how a nation's character may or must be reflected in its art His life as an outsider yet an insider at the heart of English art history illuminates both the predicament and the prowess of the continental migrants who did so much to shape British culture after 1945
