Heterotopia and Heritage Preservation Smaranda Spanu, 2019-05-02 This book approaches the field of built heritage and its practices by employing the concept of heterotopia established by the French philosopher Michel Foucault The fundamental understandings of heritage its evolution and practices all reveal intrinsic heterotopic features the mirror function its utopic drive and its enclave like nature The book draws on previous interpretations of heterotopia and argues for a reading of heritage as heterotopia considering various heritage mechanisms heritage selection conservation and protection practices and heritage as mnemonic device in this regard Reworking the six heterotopic principles an analysis grid is designed and applied to various built heritage spaces vernacular religious architecture urban 19th century ensembles Guided through this theoretical itinerary the reader will rediscover the heterotopic lens as a minor yet promising Foucauldian device that allows for a better understanding of heritage and its everyday practices

Reflecting on the City Through Literature Daan Wesselman, 2023-10-11 This book develops and demonstrates an interdisciplinary method that reads literary works as a way of thinking about the city Literary works do not only provide reflections of the city depictions of the city as an aesthetically compelling setting but the literary reflection of the city also offers a critical reflection on the city How can spatial difference be conceived in cities that are changing beyond the form of the classical modern metropolis of the early 20th century How can one think of the relation between individual urban subjects and their urban environment when neither spaces nor discourses of the city provide them with an answer to the question where they might belong How does the human body interact with its urban surroundings and how should technological mediations be thought of This book approaches these questions through analysing literary texts focusing on concepts like heterotopia non place and the posthuman This book will be of interest to interdisciplinary scholars and students of the city particularly in the fields of Urban Studies Literary Studies Geography and Architecture

Food, Festival and Religion Francesca Ciancimino Howell, 2018-08-09 Food Festival and Religion explores how communities in northern Italy find a restorative sense of place through foodways costuming and other forms of materiality Festivals examined by the author vary geographically from the northern rural corners of Italy to the fashionable heart of urban Milan The origins of these lived religious events range from Christian to vernacular Italian witchcraft and contemporary Paganism which is rapidly growing in Italy Francesca Ciancimino Howell demonstrates that during ritualized occasions the sacred is located within the mundane She argues that communal feasting pilgrimage rituals and costumed events can represent forms of lived religious materiality Building on the work of scholars including Foucault Grimes and Ingold Howell offers a theoretical Scale of Engagement which further tests the interfaces between and among the materialities of place food ritual and festivals and provides a widely applicable model for analyzing grassroots events and community initiatives Through extensive ethnographic research and fieldwork data this book demonstrates that popular Italian festivals can be ritualized liminal spaces contributing greatly to the fields of religious performance and ritual studies

Locating the Destitute Stanka Radovic, 2014-07-29 While postcolonial discourse in the Caribbean has drawn attention to colonialism's impact on space and spatial hierarchy Stanka Radovi asks both how ordinary people as users of space have been excluded from active and autonomous participation in shaping their daily spatial reality and how they challenge this exclusion In a comparative interdisciplinary reading of anglophone and francophone Caribbean literature and contemporary spatial theory she focuses on the house as a literary figure and the ways that fiction and acts of storytelling resist the oppressive hierarchies of colonial and neocolonial domination The author engages with the theories of Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault and contemporary critical geographers in addition to selected fiction by V S Naipaul Patrick Chamoiseau Beryl Gilroy and Rafa l Confiant to examine the novelists construction of narrative houses to reclaim not only actual or imaginary places but also the very conditions of self representation Radovi ultimately argues for the power of literary imagination to contest the limitations of geopolitical boundaries by emphasizing space and place as fundamental to our understanding of social and political identity The physical places described in these texts crystallize the protagonists ambiguous and complex relationship to the New World Space is then as the author shows both a political fact and a powerful metaphor whose imaginary potential continually challenges its material limitations
