Downtown Revitalisation and Delta Blues in Clarksdale, Mississippi John C. Henshall, 2018-11-15 This book is about Clarksdale a small town in Mississippi USA and how the local community has revitalised the long dilapidated downtown with the renewal based on the town's intimate association with Blues music and the culture that flows through the Mississippi Delta John Henshall highlights underlying trends in downtown decline and revitalisation in cities and towns in America together with commentary of his own experience at home in Australia In Clarksdale downtown economic revitalisation gained momentum in the mid 2000s as local residents and newcomers focused their entrepreneurial and creative efforts on promoting Clarksdale's heritage which is steeped in Blues music and Delta culture While much attention to date has been given to large cities from Sydney to San Francisco and from London to New York as creative cities little has been written about creativity in small cities and towns

Decolonizing Revelation Rufus Burnett Jr., 2018-03-16 At a time when ideas like post racial society and BlackLivesMatter occupy the same space scholars of black American faith are provided a unique opportunity to regenerate and imagine theological frameworks that confront the epistemic effects of racialization and its confluence with the theological imagination Decolonizing Revelation contributes to this task by rethinking or taking a second look at the cultural production of the blues Unlike other examinations of the blues that privilege the hermeneutic of race this work situates the blues spatially offering a transracial interpretation that looks to establish an option for disentangling racial ideology from the theological imagination This book dislocates race in particular and modernity in general as the primary means by which God's self disclosure is read across human history Rather than looking to the experience of antiblack racism as revelational the work looks to a people group blues people and their spatial sonic and sensual activities Following the basic theological premise that God is a God of life Burnett looks to the spaces where blues life occurs to construct a decolonial option for a theology of revelation
