Club and he is turning his manuscript over to the Club as a contribution to the work of the organization In granting permission for its publication Mr Marshall asked that it be made clear that he wrote only as the scribe and is speaking as much for Herb Clark the guide and George Marshall his brother as for himself A word as to the interesting rating of the mountains which Mr Marshall has included in his article This of course is not to be taken as a standard set up by the Club It is by its very nature a matter of personal opinion and in some cases it is quite conceivable that there would be a very decided difference of general opinion Introduction However there can be no denying that such a rating is interesting and furthermore every effort was made to make it as fair as possible a secret ballot in writing was taken from each of the three in the party from which a composite rating was reached HIGH PEAKS OF THE ADIRONDACKS Robert 1901-1939
