Carolyn FitzGerald,2013-07-07 In Fragmenting Modernisms Carolyn FitzGerald traces the evolution of Chinese modernism during the War of Resistance against Japan 1937-45 and Chinese Civil War 1945-49 through a series of close readings of works of fiction poetry film and visual art produced in various locations throughout wartime China Showing that the culture of this period was characterized by a high degree of formal looseness she argues that such aesthetic fluidity was created in response to historical conditions of violence and widespread displacement Moreover she illustrates how the innovative formal experiments of uprooted writers and artists expanded the geographic and aesthetic boundaries of Chinese modernism far beyond the coastal cities of Shanghai and Beijing
