Its My Life Simon Rozendaal:

Guide to Paediatric Drug Development and Clinical Research Klaus Rose, John N. Van den Anker, 2010-01-01 Children in the developed world have never enjoyed better medical care mortality has decreased and many fatal diseases of the past can today be prevented or even cured However the current practice of pharmacotherapy in children does not reflect existing scientific knowledge and has come under scrutiny by paediatricians pharmacists and regulatory authorities In order to advance the development of medicines tailored to paediatric needs US and EU legislators have taken action and the WHO has initiated a global paediatric campaign This book gives an overview over the worldwide activities that increasingly include children in the development of new medicines Triggered by both a better understanding of how the child s body develops as well as recent legislation in the USA and in Europe this comprises dosing ethics age appropriate pharmaceutical forms and clinical trials to name just a few aspects A wide spectrum of readers will profit from this book including paediatricians pharmacists general practitioners and health care professionals involved in child care and paediatric research clinical trial personnel patient advocacy groups ethics committees politicians parents and interested lay persons

Man-made Global Warming Hans H. J. Labohm, Simon Rozendaal, Dick Thoenes, 2004 These three Dutchmen respectively an international relations expert a scientific journalist and a chemical engineer past chairman of the Royal Netherlands Chemical Society form part of that growing body of reasonable and qualified people who feel unease at the claims of scientific consensus on climate change and wonder at the policies flowing from those claims If the science is flawed plainly the policies are too Worldwide billions of public money will be mis spent unnecessary costs placed on existing industry new industrial development hampered Together these three authors are well placed to point up the weaknesses in the scientific argument that global warming is a man made phenomenon and are able to analyse that murky place where the needs for recognition research grants and votes all come together Could it really be the case that the global warming crisis is really as much about careers and power as anything else
