Mercer, 2011 American geologist Mark Malloy enjoys using geology to explain Biblical stories but when he and Israeli geologist Gilda Baer discover ancient scrolls near the Dead Sea he must pursue the greatest Biblical story never told what happened during the eighteen years of Jesus life missing from the Bible Their quest having the potential to change the Bible leads the two geologists and an Israeli archeologist to locations along the Silk Road including Turkey war torn Iraq and China the eastern terminus of the ancient trade route Opposing this discovery and fearing its impact on the Christian community is an influential and corrupt financial official with a fundamentalist megachurch in the United States who uses his ties in the Holy Land to assure that the scrolls will never be released Two mysteries are entwined Follow the adventures of this scientific trio as they encounter intrigue and obstacles at every turn while discovering what happened two thousand years ago Turkey's Aegean Coast Samantha Lafferty, 2012 Two Amazon customers pointed out that this guide did not have an active hyperlinked table of contents That problem has now been corrected The active table of contents has been placed at the end of the book Click on any item in the table of contents and it will take you to that reference in the text Another customer noted that there were not pictures in the book That was true in an early version but the current edition has many many color images throughout If like me you are a bit tired of the ethnocentric social commentary that seems to come with certain well known guidebooks then you could do worse than try this one Simple to use well written and accurate I found it invaluable and couldn't fault any of its recommendations nor descriptions Yurt Amazon reviewer Turkey is so diverse it could almost be described as a continent rather than a country The Aegean coastal area is one of the most beautiful anywhere This is the main focus of this guide though it also contains an extensive introduction to the country as a whole including history cultural information and abundant practical details about traveling in Turkey Driving down the coast from north to south travelers first encounter Pergamon one of the greatest cities in the Hellenistic world and a center of culture medicine and commerce At Sardis the ancient capital of the Lydians you can hunt for traces of the gold that was reputed to flow down the Pactalos River South of Izmiris Ephesus one of the world's most lauded historical treasures The vast Roman city captured the imagination of many an ancient woman No doubt she would have dreamed of visiting the city where the men were powerful and the stores were lavish The magnetism of Ephesus still attracts a huge crowd Farther along the coast are the ancient cities of Priene Miletos and Didyma and inland are the milky terraces of Pamukkale Turkey's location straddles Asia and Europe The three great Empires that ruled the country for thousands of years left a legacy of enchanting cultures and more ancient sites than even Italy or Greece can boast Covered in detail are where to stay where to eat shopping sightseeing and adventures both cultural and physical from walking in the footsteps of St Paul to joining in the local festivals from yoga and Turkish baths to art classes and cooking courses This guide combines in depth text information with color maps photos on almost every page Existing guides are largely text only or mostly graphics and lacking the practical details travelers need The guide totals 163 pages

purposes for which they have been used from floors to roofs stoves to bathrooms cathedrals to metro stations will be explored along with the various techniques employed to create such versatile pieces 5000 Years of Tiles is the essential most comprehensive single volume for anyone interested in the ceramic decorative and architectural arts Only the Best Katharine Baetjer, James David Draper, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 This volume and the exhibition it accompanies bring together eighty of the finest masterpieces in the collection of the Calouste Gulbenkian Museum Lisbon All of the works of art are richly illustrated in color and described in authoritative texts by the curators of the Gulbenkian Museum These magnificent pieces which reflect the renowned art collector Calouste Gulbenkian's eclectic taste include paintings by Rubens Fragonard Gainsborough Turner and Manet silver from services created for the nobility of Russia and Western Europe Roman medallions Ottoman ceramics Japanese lacquerware jewelry by Lalique and books and textiles from both East and West These works of art offer dazzling testimony to Gulbenkian's devotion to the quality of the individual object and to his refined connoisseurship The Calouste Gulbenkian Museum was created under the terms of Gulbenkian's will in order to preserve under one roof the artworks in his collection one of the preeminent art assemblages of the first half of the twentieth century Gulbenkian a successful businessman who was born in 1869 in Ottoman Turkey to an Armenian family made his fortune in the oil industry In April 1942 in the midst of World War II he arrived in Lisbon seeking a peaceful place to live Portugal had remained neutral in the conflict that was engulfing the world Gulbenkian spent the rest of his life in Lisbon where he died in 1955 As a collector whether of ancient Egyptian art Islamic art or European painting and decorative arts Gulbenkian acquired only the best Essays in Honor of J.M. Rogers Gülru Necipoğlu, Doris Behrens-Abouseif, Anna Contadina, 2004 A Historical Archaeology of the Ottoman Empire Uzi Baram, Lynda Carroll, 2006-03-16 Archaeology in the Middle East and the Balkans rarely focuses on the recent past as a result archaeologists have largely ignored the material remains of the Ottoman Empire Drawing on a wide variety of case studies and essays this volume documents the emerging field of Ottoman archaeology and the relationship of this new field to anthropological classical and historical archaeology as well as Ottoman studies Islam, Christianity and the Making of Czech Identity, 1453-1683 Laura Lisy-Wagner, 2016-05-06 Unlike many narratives about the Czech lands which place them on the periphery of their own history this study considers Czechs as central characters looking both east and west to find their place in the early modern world Islam Christianity and the Making of Czech Identity 1453 1683 works through the descriptive and ethnographic texts produced by Czech speakers about Islam and the Ottoman Empire to show how they used this discourse to create Czech identities Rather than simply constructing identity in opposition to the Islamic Other Laura Lisy Wagner shows how these authors played the Holy Roman and Ottoman Empires off each other creating an autonomous space for themselves in between Lisy Wagner introduces sources that are new to English language historiography and uses them in a way that is new to Czech historiography as well The chapters are organized based on different categories of agents travelers ethnographers religious leaders artists and political revolutionaries whose voices cast ideas of Europe and Czech identity in the early modern period in a new and different light
