The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete, 2020-10-01 In The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete brings together contemporary women writers and artists well known for their formal experimentation Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Lygia Clark Marguerite Duras Roni Horn and Clarice Lispector to argue that the aesthetic experiences afforded by their work are underwritten by a tenacious and uniquely feminine ethics of desire To elaborate this ethics Negrete looks to notions of sublimation and feminine sexuality developed by Freud Baudelaire Mallarm and Nietzsche and their reinvention with and after Jacques Lacan including in the schizoanalysis of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari But she also highlights how psychoanalytic theory draws on writing and other creative practices to conceive of unconscious processes and the transformation sought through analysis Thus the aesthetic clinic of the book's title a term Negrete adopts from Deleuze is not an applied psychoanalysis or schizoanalysis Rather The Aesthetic Clinic privileges the call and constraints issued by each woman's individual work Engaging an artwork here is less about retrieving a hidden meaning through interpretation than about receiving a precise transmission of sensation a jouissance irreducible to meaning Not only do art and literature serve an urgent clinical function in Negrete's reading but sublimation itself requires an embrace of femininity

The return of the repressed. 1 Louise Josephine Bourgeois, 2012

Lifework Moran Sheleg, 2024-07-23 Following the critical scepticism surrounding the notion of the self as a singular entity during the 1960s many artists and writers sought to test the apparent problem posed by autobiography as both a traditional genre and as a way of working Considering the consequent emergence of autotheory Lifework traces this shift in artistic and literary production during the late twentieth century and beyond examining a set of diverse practices that mine the line between what it is to make art and what it is to live life The book's chapters connect a variety of artistic strategies that cut across medium geography and time uncovering how the historical marginalisation of first person experience has taken on larger social cultural and political implications in the contemporary moment and how the work of living might still relate to the work of art
