Physical Therapy - Evaluation and treatment of a person by physical measures and the use of therapeutic exercise, and rehabilitative procedures, with or without assistive devices for the purpose of preventing, correcting, or alleviating any physical disabilities. Includes physiotherapy.

Physical therapy includes:

- Establishment and modification of PT programs, treatment planning, patient education and instruction, and consultative services
- Determining a PT diagnosis in order to treat the person's physical impairments, functional limitations, and physical disabilities; determining a prognosis; and determining a plan of therapeutic intervention
- Design, fabrication, and revision of various assistive devices, and provision of education and instruction in the use of those devices including braces, splints, ambulatory or locomotion devices, wheelchairs, prosthetics and orthotics
- Administration of topical drugs that have been prescribed by a licensed health professional authorized to prescribe drugs

Physical therapy diagnosis means:

- Judgement that is made after examining the neuro musculoskeletal system or evaluating or studying its symptoms and that utilizes the techniques and science of physical therapy to establish a plan of therapeutic intervention. PT diagnosis does not include a medical diagnosis.

Physical measures include:

- Massage and other manual therapy techniques, heat, cold, air, light, water, electricity, sound, and performance of tests of neuromuscular function

Physical therapy DOES NOT include:

- The use of electricity for cauterization or other surgical purposes.
- The use of Roentgen rays or radium for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes

Physical Therapist - A person who practices or provides patient education and instruction in physical therapy and includes a physiotherapist

Individual who performs initial examination unless that PT has transferred the responsibility for the management of the patient's care to another PT and that PT agrees to the transfer
