Love And Rockets Vol 4 Tears From Heaven:

Love and Rockets Gilbert Hernandez, Jaime Hernandez, 2013-09-21 Five women stand in a police lineup four of them are garishly dressed impressively endowed superwomen perfectly normal because this is after all the cover of a comic book A closer look however reveals a fifth woman who seems thoroughly out of place mousy in bathrobe and curlers smoking a cigarette she appears to have been suddenly yanked from her breakfast table Surely this diminutive dowdy woman is here by mistake or is she From the very first cover of the very first issue of Love and Rockets in 1982 Gilbert and Jaime Hernandez have created artwork that has subverted contradicted and celebrated the history of the comic book medium inverting familiar tropes and creating some of the most iconic images in comics over the past three and a half decades inviting fans and readers into their world Amazingly many of the covers created by Gilbert and Jaime Hernandez for the various iterations of Love and Rockets over the past 35 years have never been collected or have only been reprinted in black and white Love and Rockets The Covers will not only rectify this problem but present them without trade dress logos marketing hype etc allowing the original cover illustrations to communicate on their own The Love and Rockets Companion Marc Sobel, Kristy

Luba Gilbert Hernandez, 2006 by Gilbert Hernandez Luba Three Daughters is the final book in Gilbert Hernandez s post

Palomar trilogy continuing the story of matriarch Luba and her extended family's travails in the United States after her Central American hometown is destroyed at the end of Palomar. It focuses on Luba and her two sisters Fritz and Petra exploring the complex relationships that form between family and how the experiences and actions of one generation influence the next. Renowned for his female characters, Hernandez intersperses his main narrative with The Kid Stuff, a series of lighthearted and playful one-pagers starring the young children of the three sisters richly juxtaposed against the complex family drama at work in Three Daughters. Hernandez's mix of Latino soap opera, magic realist touches, and rich naturalism speak to audiences about the changes that come with age and experience, and they are unparalleled in comics.

Dicks and Deedees Jaime Hernandez, 2003 by Jaime Hernandez. This collection of Jaime's famed Maggie stories contains the strangest left turn in Maggie's life. She's getting divorced. What you didn't even know she was married. Neither did anyone else. The Comics Journal, 1990 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 House of Raging Women Gilbert Hernandez, Jaime Hernandez, 1988. A serial killer stalks the streets of Palomar. Gruesome and senseless as his depredations are, they are dwarfed by the resulting social and psychological collapse suffered by the inhabitants of the Central American town. The Comic Art Collection Catalog Michigan State University Libraries, Special Collections Division, 1993. This is the most comprehensive dictionary available on comic art produced around the world. The catalog provides detailed information about more than 60,000 cataloged books, magazines, scrapbooks, fanzines, comic books, and other materials in the Michigan State University Libraries' America's premiere library comics collection. The catalog lists both comics and works about comics. Each book or serial is listed by title with entries as appropriate under author, subject, and series. Besides the traditional books and magazines, significant collections of microfilm, sound recordings, vertical files, and realia (mainly T-shirts) are included. Comics and related materials are grouped by nationality (e.g., French comics) and genre (e.g., funny animal comics). Several times larger than any previously published bibliography list or catalog on the comic arts, this unique international dictionary catalog is indispensable for all scholars and students of comics and the broad field of popular culture. The Best Comics of the Decade, 1990 Tears from Heaven Gilbert Hernandez, Jaime Hernandez, Mario Hernandez, 2002.
