literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero. Like the society it mirrors, it is now a far richer, many-faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society, racially, culturally, and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious. Ten women writing fiction in America today—Toni Cade Bambara, Joan Didion, Louise Erdrich, Gail Godwin, Mary Gordon, Alison Lurie, Joyce Carol Oates, Jayne Anne Phillips, Susan Fromberg Schaeffer, and Mary Lee Settle—represent that geographic, ethnic, and racial diversity that is distinctively American. Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen, Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers, the urban ethnics, Irish, Jewish, and black, of Gordon, Schaeffer, and Bambara, Oates's small-town, often violent neurotics, Lurie's intellectual sophisticates, and the southern survivors and victims, male and female, of Phillips, Settle, and Godwin. The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity, memory, family, and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers. The fictional women who emerge here, as these critics show, are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory, perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping, find identity elusive and frustrating, and experience the interweaving of silence, solitude, and family in complex patterns. Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike. Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are.

The Mark Twain Encyclopedia J. R. LeMaster, James Darrell Wilson, Christie Graves Hamric, 1993. A reference guide to the great American author, 1835–1910, for students and general readers. The approximately 740 entries, arranged alphabetically, are essentially a collection of articles ranging significantly in length and covering a variety of topics pertaining to Twain's life, intellectual milieu, literary career, and achievements. Because so much of Twain's writing reflects Samuel Clemens's personal experience, particular attention is given to the interface between art and life, i.e., between imaginative reconstructions and their factual sources of inspiration. Each entry is accompanied by a selective bibliography to guide readers to sources of additional information. Annotation copyright by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR.

Contemporary Authors Terrie M. Rooney, 1997–12. Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors. R.

Expirer Au Féminin Mary Jo Muratore, 2003. Expirer au féminin offers new perspectives on the complex relationship between neo-classical writers, their works, and the theoretical mandates imposed upon them. In this work, the author argues that a writer's conflicted attitude towards aesthetic conformity infiltrated the work itself. This conflict can be seen in the confrontation between a male hero eager to comply with ideological protocols and a dissenting heroine in violation of established regulations. It is to be expected, perhaps, that in the political context of seventeenth-century France, a heroine's refusal to embrace orthodox opinions would result inevitably in her death, dissolution, or excision from the text. What is unanticipated, however, is that writers would so often slant the readers' sympathy in the direction of the rebellious heroine and against the obedient hero. Expirer au féminin analyzes how the heroine's ostensibly expedient death serves to further complicate the very situation it was intended to neutralize. Rendered essential by her presence but quintessential by her absence, the heroine in these canonical texts embodies the non-permissible vision, the unspeakable other, the essence of alteration or alternation or alienation that is often seen as the antithesis of neo-classical textuality. In the readings proposed, the heroine's rebelliousness reveals one of the most salient yet least noted characteristics of neo-classical textuality: it does not, will not, cannot conform. Beneath a surface of sameness and adherence, it proffers an unruly dismantling of codes, an untidy challenge to prescription, a poetically intoned ode to desobedience.
