

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They might develop better in case of emergencies, but they didn't know anyone thought planned attack was needed at all. (Instead, they'd be ready for surprise.)
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join, but not immediately and not necessarily.
4. Would what the Americans said about rockets and satellites be true?	Yes, the governments had no intention of using the rockets for anything.	Yes, everyone could see the rockets and would not take a second thought about them.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What would be the main reason for this?

It might be that the weapons were really bad.

It would be easier. The governments the weapons were made.

It is possible that building them had got much less interesting.
