Gunboat Justice Volume 1 British And American Law Courts In China And Japan 1842 1943:

Justice and International Law in Meiji Japan Giorgio Fabio Colombo, 2023-02-10 This book carries out a comprehensive analysis of the Mar a Luz incident a truly significant episode in Japanese and world history from a legal perspective In July 1872 the Mar a Luz a barque flying the Peruvian flag carried Chinese indentured servants from Macau to Peru After the ship stopped for repairs in Kanagawa Bay a number of legal issues arose that were destined to change the perception and use of the law in Japan forever The case had a tremendous impact on the collective imagination both Japanese and international it is one of the first occurrences in which an Asian country decided to resist the pressure of a Western nation and responded using the most refined tools of domestic and international law Moreover the final outcome of the case arbitration in front of the Czar of Russia marks the debut of Japan on the stage of international arbitration While historians have written widely on the subject the legal importance of this event has been relatively neglected This book uses the case to explore the technical legal issues Japan was facing in its transition from pre modernity to modernity These include unequal treaties extraterritoriality clauses the need to establish an updated judicial system and a delicate balance between asserting sovereignty and resorting to diplomacy in solving disputes involving foreigners Based on original documents this book is an invaluable resource for researchers and academics in the fields of legal history dispute resolution international law Japanese history and Asian studies

British Extraterritoriality in Korea 1884 - 1910 Christoph Roberts, 2025-10-01 Filling an important gap in extraterritoriality studies and in the history of Anglo Korean relations this benchmark study examines Britain s exercise of extraterritorial rights in Korea from 1884 until Korea s formal annexation by Japan in 1910 It shows how the treaty provisions which provided for Britain s ideal extra territorial regime were influenced by Britain s considerably greater experience in Japan beginning in 1859 The caseload proved miniscule in the absence of any large British commercial or maritime presence Nevertheless it provides an insight into extra territoriality s operation outside major commercial centres and ports Britain s protection of Chinese interests in Korea in the aftermath of the Sino Japanese War 1894 1895 is also covered

Sino-British Negotiations and the Search for a Post-War Settlement, 1942-1949 Zhaodong Wang, 2022-03-21 The book is a systematic study of the China Britain relationship during the 1942 1949 period with a particular focus on the two countries discussions over both the 1943 Sino British treaty and the discarded Sino British commercial treaty the future of Hong Kong and the political status of Tibet These were dominated by two underlying themes the elimination of the British imperialist position in China and the establishment of an equal and reciprocal bilateral relationship The negotiations started promisingly in 1942 1943 but by 1949 had failed to reach a satisfactory settlement Behind the failure lay a complex set of domestic considerations and external factors including the powerful influence of the United States Even after seven decades the failure still has a contemporary impact Recent Sino British disputes over the Hong Kong Anti Extradition Law Amendment Bill Movement and incessant Indo Chinese conflicts and skirmishes over their unsettled borders all attest to the enduring legacy of the years 1942-1949 as setting the scene for subsequent Sino-British and Sino-Indian relations. From this perspective, the history has never left us.

Law across imperial borders Emily Whewell, 2019-12-20. This book is the story of British consuls at the edge of the British and Chinese empires. By embracing local norms and adapting to transfrontier migration, consuls created forms of transfrontier legal authority.

Brief History of China Jonathan Clements, 2019-11-12. ING_08 Review quote.

A Special Standing in the World Christopher Munn, 2019-10-21. The history of the Faculty of Law at HKU is in many ways the history of the law in modern Hong Kong. Founded in 1969, the Faculty has helped transform a colonial legal backwater into a flourishing jurisdiction in which Hong Kong maintains its common law system as a special administrative region of the People's Republic of China. The Faculty has played a vital part in fostering a legal profession firmly rooted in Hong Kong, functioning in both Chinese and English. Its early teachers pioneered scholarship on Hong Kong law. Its graduates now make up over half of Hong Kong's Judiciary and legal profession. Over the years, the Faculty has earned worldwide recognition as a centre of research in subjects ranging from human rights to financial regulation. Published to mark the Golden Jubilee, this book traces the Faculty's rise from humble origins to its position as one of the world's leading law schools. Drawing on archives, publications, and interviews, the book explores the growth of the Faculty against the momentous events of the past 50 years. The first two chapters examine the Faculty's prehistory when, for over a hundred years, most of Hong Kong's lawyers were trained in England. The remaining six chapters explore alternately the Faculty's internal history and its role in building Hong Kong's modern legal system. Dr Munn traces the Faculty of Law's fascinating journey over half a century. From a modest beginning, it has developed into one of the finest law schools in the world. The story is told in the context of the historic events and momentous changes of this era. This illuminating and outstanding work deserves to be widely read.

The Hon Andrew Li, First Chief Justice of the HKSAR, 1997-2010. Christopher Munn's history of the Faculty of Law is more than the history of a remarkable educational institution; it is a history of how the law and legal culture in Hong Kong developed from modest mid-nineteenth century colonial beginnings to its present pre-eminent position. Clearly composed in lively prose, this book is essential reading for anyone who seeks to understand modern Hong Kong and its place in the world today.

The Rt Hon Beverley McLachlin, Chief Justice of Canada, 2000-2017.

East Asia Observed James Hoare, 2025-10-01. This collection brings together themes in East Asian history, diplomacy, culture, and politics, written by J. E. Hoare since the early 1970s. His writings derive from his training as a historian, from his time as a Research Analyst in the British Foreign Office from 1969-2003, and from his experiences as a diplomat in the Republic of Korea, South Korea, the People's Republic of China, and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (North Korea). The writings selected for this volume include academic papers, book reviews, and some quasi-journalistic articles which reflect both historical research and analysis of current events and issues. The wide-ranging content speaks to the author's specialist fields of interest, including diplomacy, biography, extraterritoriality, and architecture, on which he has published extensively.

Seeking News, Making China John

Alekna,2024-03-19 Contemporary developments in communications technologies have overturned key aspects of the global political system and transformed the media landscape Yet interlocking technological informational and political revolutions have occurred many times in the past In China radio first arrived in the winter of 1922 23 bursting into a world where communication was slow disjointed or non existent Less than ten percent of the population ever read newspapers Just fifty years later at the beginning of the Cultural Revolution news broadcasts reached hundreds of millions of people instantaneously every day How did Chinese citizens experience the rapid changes in information practices and political organization that occurred in this period What was it like to live through a news revolution John Alekna traces the history of news in twentieth century China to demonstrate how large structural changes in technology and politics were heard and felt Scrutinizing the flow of news can reveal much about society and politics illustrating who has power and why and uncovering the connections between different regions peoples and social classes Taking an innovative holistic view of information practices Alekna weaves together both rural and urban history to tell the story of the rise of mass society through the lens of communication techniques and technology showing how the news revolution fundamentally reordered the political geography of China

Mediating Empire Andrew Hillier,2025-10-01 As part of the growing scholarship on family and empire this study examines Britain's presence in China through the lens of one family arguing that as the physical embodiment of the imperial project it provided a social and cultural mechanism for mediating Britain's imperial power authority and presence and forging connections and networks throughout the expanding British world Drawing on public and private papers it breaks significant new ground in its development of those themes
