spoiled child Julian Robinson later Viscount Ladywood in this witty Victorian novel in diary form As a lad Julian shows too much spunk and his parents desperate to regain control send him off to a secret select private school to learn discipline and submission as only the stern but strangely beautiful Mademoiselle de Chambonnard can dispense it Gynecocracy; with an essay on fornication, adultery, and incest [with reference to the trial of Queen Caroline]. By the author of "Rumours of Treason.", 1821 Gynecocracy Julian Robinson (afterwards Viscount Ladywood), 2015-09-02 When Julian Robinson and his cousins are caught in a compromising situation with one the house maids his punishment will not be what the young man expects at all To be dressed at all times in a tight corset stays and kid gloves Julian forever after Julia will learn to be dominated by the woman of the household It is not long before all manner of naughtiness and birch enforced disciplining ensues With many a lascivious encounter and subjected to bondage humiliation and some imaginative corporal punishments Julian will discover the sort of liberation that can only come in the throes of sexual abandon This complete three volume work written pseudonymously in 1893 pays much homage to Masoch's Venus in Furs with a sumptuously graphic prose that perfectly captures the decadent side of Victorian high society Gynecocracy Julian Robinson, 1893
