Hildegard Of Bingen And Her Vision Of The Feminine:

Hildegard of Bingen Nancy Fierro, 1994-11 Explores the life and contributions of the 12th century Abbess Fierro shows the spirituality and context of a woman theologian and mystic With illustrations Hildegard of Bingen Anne H. King-Lenzmeier, 2001 Surveys the Writing of Hildegard of Bingen Both Her Visionary and Nonvisionary Works As Well As Her Music and Describes the Events and Forces in Her Life That Led to Hildegard Creating a Virtual Library of Publications The Author Provides a Sketch of Hildegard As a Nun a Religious Superior Author Mystic and Musician While Defining the Theological Integration That Occurred During Her Creative Life Book jacket Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture Delighting in the Feminine Divine Bridget Mary Meehan, 1994 In this text the reader is allowed both the freedom to accept and the freedom to affirm those human traits and values that western culture has traditionally identified with woman Thinking Woman Jennifer Hockenbery Dragseth, 2016-08-25 What does it mean to be a woman Do women have a unique nature and a unique vocation Should feminists work to help women specifically or to support all people Thinking Woman examines the lives and ideas of women in the history of philosophy who wished to understand and advocate for themselves as women Some like Hildegard of Bingen and Edith Stein found women to be a unique creature designed by God necessary for good stewardship of creation Others such as Mary Wollstonecraft and Sojourner Truth found women to be identical to men in all but biology and thus identical before the law Still others from Simone de Beauvoir to Judith Butler found the very question troubling as they tried to sort out cultural ideas from biological rules These women and their views form a canon on the question of women a canon that can help guide the conversation for thinkers and activists today who want both to understand women and to advocate for justice for all people Thinking

Women in Music Karin Pendle, Melinda Boyd, 2005-09-19 First published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company Come, Holy Spirit Leonardo Boff, 2015-03-01 A Feminist Companion to the Apocalypse of John Amy-Jill Levine, 2010-05-05 The thirteenth volume in this landmark series examines the Revelation of John through the categories of post colonial thought deconstruction ethics Roman social discourse masculinization virginity and violence The reach of this volume therefore goes beyond that of most feminist studies of Revelation which frequently focus on the female imagery the Tyatiran prophet called Jezebel the Woman Clothed with the Sun the Whore of Babylon and the Bride the Heavenly Jerusalem The symbols of Revelation remain open and interpretations continue Some readers will refuse to rejoice at the dismemberment of the Woman who is Babylon they will resist the masochistic infantile self abasement before this imperial Deity who rules by patriarchal domination Others will conclude that these descriptions are only metaphors separate form from substance and worship the transcendent to which the metaphors imperfectly point Some readers will understand if not fully condone John's rhetoric by seeking his political and social location others will condone if not fully understand how the Apocalypse can provide comfort to those undergoing persecution or deprivation Some readers may reject the coercive aspects of a choice between spending eternity in praise of the divine or being tortured with fire and sulfur others may rejoice in their own salvation while believing that those being tortured deserve every pain inflicting upon them still others may use mimicry or parody or anachronistic analogy to challenge defang or replace John's message What we find behind the veil may be beautiful or terrifying or both but we cannot avert our eyes John's vision is too influential today in our own political climate not to look for ourselves The Feminist Companion to the Apocalypse of John includes contributions by David L Barr Mary Ann Beavis Greg Carey Adela Yarbro Collins Lynn R Huber Catherine Keller John Marshall Stephen Moore Jorunn Kland Hanna Stenström Pamela Thimmes and Carolyn Vander Stichele There is an introduction by Amy Jill Levine and a comprehensive bibliography Presenting Women Philosophers Cecile Thérèse Tougas, Sara Ebenreck, 2000 Western philosophy has long excluded the work of women thinkers from their canon Presenting Women Philosophers addresses this exclusion by examining the breadth of women's contributions to Western thought over some 900 years Editors Cecile T Tougas and Sara Ebenreck have gathered essays and other writings that reflect women's deep engagement with the meaning of individual experience as well as the continuity of their philosophical concerns and practices Arranged thematically the collection ranges across eras and literary genres as it emphasizes the intellectual significance of written work by key figures for example Hildegard of Bingen's visionary writings Iris Murdoch's fiction Hannah Arendt's historical narratives and the oral storytelling in black women's literary tradition The collection also brings to light the philosophical importance of little known work by such writers as Mme de Sabl and Mme de Condorcet This wide ranging collection offers non philosophers an introduction to women's thought but also promises to engage advanced students of philosophy with new

The Writer and the Cross Darren J.N. Middleton, 2022-06-27 Spiritually engaged readers commonly look toward fiction to better understand the depth of a faithful life and Christians are no exception Many followers of Jesus value beautifully written deftly characterized and pulse quickening literary art that seems more satisfying than dry tedious doctrinal textbooks This book surveys 12 pieces of historical fiction that feature notable Christian thinkers They include an illustrated children's book about St Irenaeus of Lyons a novel about Martin Luther's Reformation a screenplay focusing on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and even a story about Pope Francis narrated in popular manga style Rather than arcane literary analyses this book provides thoughtful and sometimes painful interviews with the authors of the covered works Most interviewees are little known or emerging writers Some have published their work with a church or denominational press others with a major publishing empire or popular print on demand platforms Storytellers reflect on their literary choices and the contexts of their writing sharing what modern Christians can learn from historical religious fiction

The World of Women in Classical Music Anne Gray, 2007

Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women's diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures Across the span of human history women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality In the contemporary period women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before Contemporaneously with this increased visibility women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality African religions prehistoric religions and other broad topics Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography

'You Shall Surely not Die' (2 Vols.) Jill Bradley, 2008-07-31 The period 800-1200 saw many changes in attitude towards death sin and salvation Visual sources can provide a valuable complement to written sources often modifying or adding another dimension to what scholars and theologians expressed in words Taking miniatures showing the Fall of Man and those with personifications of death this study looks at the ideas they express and the relationship between them It examines both the general tendencies and specific manuscripts relating them to their contexts and to the writings of the time This book shows the shifts in ideas as to what constitutes sin the merging of eschatological death with sin and a new emphasis on physical death thereby giving new insights into medieval thought and culture The Living Church ,1996 The Mind's Eye Jeffrey F.

Hamburger, Anne-Marie Bouché, 2006 The Mind's Eye focuses on the relationships among art theology exegesis and literature issues long central to the study of medieval art yet ripe for reconsideration Essays by leading scholars from many fields examine the illustration of theological commentaries the use of images to expound or disseminate doctrine the role of images within theological discourse the development of doctrine in response to images and the place of vision and the visual in theological thought At issue are the ways in which theologians responded to the images that we call art and in which images entered into dialogue with theological discourse In what ways could medieval art be construed as argumentative in structure as well as in function Are any of the modes of representation in medieval art analogous to those found in texts In what ways did images function as vehicles not merely vessels of meaning and signification To what extent can exegesis and other genres of theological discourse shed light on the form as well as the content and function of medieval images These are only some of the challenging questions posed by this unprecedented and interdisciplinary collection which provides a historical framework within which to reconsider the relationship between seeing and thinking perception and the imagination in the Middle Ages

This Is My Body Ella Johnson, 2020-04-15 This book examines how the writings of the thirteenth century nun Gertrude the Great of Helfta articulate an innovative relationship between a person's eucharistic devotion and her body It attends to her references to the biblical monastic and theological traditions including attitudes and ideas about the spiritual and corporeal senses in order to illuminate the affirmative role Gertrude assigns to the body in making spiritual progress Ultimately the book demonstrates that Gertrude leaves behind the dualistic aspect of the Christian intellectual and devotional tradition while exploiting its affirmative concepts of bodily forms of knowing divine union Dear Sister Karen Cherewatuk, Ulrike Wiethaus, 1993-04 Dear Sister Medieval Women and the Epistolary Genre explores women's contributions to letter writing in Western Europe from the sixth to the sixteenth centuries The essays represent the first attempt to chart medieval women's achievements in epistolarity and the contributors to this volume situate the women writers in a solidly historical context and employ a variety of feminist approaches Both religious and secular writers are discussed including Radegund Hildegard of Bingen Heloise Catherine of Siena the women of the Paston family Christine de Pizan and Maria de Hout
