

The background of the entire image is a stylized American flag. It features horizontal stripes of red and white, with a blue field containing white stars. The flag is depicted as if it is waving, with the stripes curving and flowing across the frame. The colors are slightly muted, giving it a graphic, almost painterly appearance.

Hillary 2016 Comprehensive Argument Presidency:

The Making of the President 2016 Roger Stone, 2017-01-31 In the tradition of Theodore White's landmark books the definitive look at how Donald J Trump shocked the world to become president From Roger Stone a New York Times bestselling author longtime political adviser and friend to Donald Trump and consummate Republican strategist comes the first in depth examination of how Trump's campaign tapped into the national mood to deliver a stunning victory that almost no one saw coming In the early hours of November 9 2016 one of the most contentious polarizing and vicious presidential races came to an abrupt and unexpected end when heavily favored presidential hopeful Hillary Clinton called Donald J Trump to concede shocking a nation that had only hours before given little credence to his chances Donald Trump pulled the greatest upset in American political history despite a torrent of invective and dismissal of the mainstream media Stone a long time Trump retainer and confidant gives us the inside story of how Donald Trump almost single handedly harnessed discontent among Forgotten Americans despite running a guerrilla style grass roots campaign to compete with the smooth running and free spending Clinton political machine From the start Trump's campaign was unlike any seen on the national stage combative maverick and fearless Trump's nomination was the hostile takeover of the Republican party and a resounding repudiation of the failed leadership of both parties whose policies have brought America to the brink of financial collapse as well as endangering our national security Here Stone outlines how Donald Trump skillfully ran as the anti Open Borders candidate as well as a supporter of American sovereignty and how he used the Globalist trade deals like NAFTA to win over three of ten Bernie Sanders supporters The veteran adviser to Nixon Reagan and Trump charts the rise of the alt conservative media and the end of the mainstream media monopoly on voter impacting information dissemination This is an insider's view that includes studying opposition research into Bill Hillary and Chelsea Clinton's crimes and the struggle by the Republican establishment to stop Trump and how they underestimated him Stone chronicles Trump's triumph in three debates where he skillfully lowered expectation levels but skewered Mrs Clinton for the corruption of the Clinton Foundation her mishandling of government email and her incompetence as Secretary of State Stone gives us the inside word on Julian Assange Wikileaks Clinton campaign chief John Podesta Huma Abedin Anthony Weiner Carlos Danger Doug Band Jeffery Epstein and the efforts to hide the former first lady's infirmities and health problems Stone dissects the phony narrative that Trump was in cahoots with Russian strongman Vladimir Putin or that the e-mails released by Wikileaks came from the Russians The Making of the President 2016 reveals how Trump brilliantly picked at Hillary Clinton's weaknesses particularly her reputation as a crooked insider and ignited the passions of out of work white men and women from the rust belt and beyond at a time when millions of Americans desperately wanted change Stone also reveals how and why the mainstream media got it wrong including how the polls were loaded and completely misunderstood who would vote Stone's analysis is akin to Theodore H White's seminal book The Making of the President 1960 It is both a sweeping analysis of the trends that elected Trump as well as the war stories of a hard bitten political survivor who Donald Trump called one tough cookie

Argumentation in Actual Practice Frans H. van Eemeren, Bart Garssen, 2019-09-23 Argumentation in Actual Practice contains a collection of topical studies about argumentative discourse in context written by argumentation scholars from a diversity of academic backgrounds Some contributions provide general perspectives other contributions deal with specific issues particular types of argumentative discourse or individual argumentative speech events The contexts in which argumentation is examined vary from politics and the media to medical juridical educational commercial or military contexts a specific academic discipline a special issue or pertain to all kinds of contextualised argumentative discourse The issues discussed include the interpretation and analysis of argumentation strategic manoeuvring argument schemes the stock issues the fallacies the principle of charity and the persuasiveness of argumentative discourse A common feature is that they are all empirically oriented and that virtually all of them are strongly concerned with an adequate understanding of contextualised argumentative discourse and the factors that may increase or decrease its reasonableness and effectiveness

Local Theories of Argument Dale Hampe, 2021-03-25 Argumentation is often understood as a coherent set of Western theories birthed in Athens and developing throughout the Roman period the Middle Ages the Enlightenment and Renaissance and into the present century Ideas have been nuanced developed and revised but still the outline of argumentation theory has been recognizable for centuries or so it has seemed to Western scholars The 2019 Alta Conference on Argumentation co sponsored by the National Communication Association and the American Forensic Association aimed to question the generality of these intellectual traditions This resulting collection of essays deals with the possibility of having local theories of argument local to a particular time a particular kind of issue a particular place or a particular culture Many of the papers argue for reconsidering basic ideas about arguing to represent the uniqueness of some moment or location of discourse Other scholars are more comfortable with the Western traditions and find them congenial to the analysis of arguments that originate in discernibly distinct circumstances The papers represent different methodologies cover the experiences of different nations at different times examine varying sorts of argumentative events speeches court decisions food choices and sound explore particular personal identities and the issues highlighted by them and have different overall orientations to doing argumentation scholarship Considered together the essays do not generate one simple conclusion but they stimulate reflection about the particularity or generality of the experience of arguing and therefore the scope of our theories

Winning the Presidency 2016 William J. Crotty, 2017-07-20 The presidential election of 2016 was unlike any in modern American history Donald Trump a successful businessman well known reality television host and a political novice with no clear policy views or political attachments ran for the presidency His opponent was Hillary Clinton a candidate with a long and impressive career in politics She was the first woman nominee of a major political party and should she have won the first woman president of the United States No one gave Trump much of a chance Yet he won the election How did he do it

Rhetoric and Governance under Trump Bernd Kaussler,Lars J. Kristiansen,Jeffrey Delbert,2020-07-09 Rhetoric and Governance under Trump Proclamations from the Bullshit Pulpit analyzes the rhetoric of Donald Trump to argue that Trump s deeply illiberal rhetoric cruel policies corruption disruptive foreign policy and disdain for the rule of law makes him a textbook populist However his embrace of mainstream conservative policies and the culture war narratives that come with them made him a rather conventional Republican Being more plutocrat than populist Trump had to bridge this fundamental contradiction by employing populist and polarizing rhetoric alongside fabricated crises to uphold the veneer of being an anti status quo politician Bernd Kaussler Lars J Kristiansen and Jeffrey Delbert argue that for Trump bullshit confrontational politics and fear has emerged as a vital political strategy Through an analysis of Trump s first three years in office the authors find that President Trump governed using a communication strategy that a denied facts relied heavily on bullshit lies and fabricated counter narratives b attacked news outlets and the opposition to foster identity based polarization in order to sideline critics and stir up factions for specific political ends and c dismissed legitimate criticism of policies and the conduct of the administration and the president himself as fake news Kaussler Kristiansen and Delbert argue that the repeated use of this strategy along with a mixture of public complacency and concerted efforts on the part of his own party has allowed Trump to work toward normalizing these lies and cover ups throughout his tenure only further exacerbating the highly polarized and partisan political environment in the United States Scholars of rhetoric communication political science and media studies will find this book particularly useful
