Sunday Falling Martin Hurcomb,2025-07-28 In a landscape where medieval kings used to hunt lime trees cast thankful shadows on a hot June day an actress strolls around practising her lines and the Earl of Clarendon public house offers sanctuary fine fare and just a hint of deviousness Alba White is staying at Kingsbourne Manor as a guest of Dr John Sunday It sounded idyllic when she had been invited but now she is here the reality is anything but idyllic because the other guests as well as the villagers themselves have taken none too kindly to Dr John s wealth nor his new flame As Alba s stay at Kingsbourne Manor progresses from the straightforward unwelcome to the unpleasant and finally most dramatically to disaster she wishes she had never come Indeed her journey to the house had almost been trying to tell her to stay away Yet she had come and it falls to Alba to hunt out the truth as to what has happened But is the truth ultimately what Alba should have been searching for Iron Ledger Robert Hillstone,2025-02-07 In the crumbling ruins of Vesper once a magnificent skyline now reduced to a tangled labyrinth of rusted girders and shattered glass a man named Malik Corven stumbles upon a contaminated ledger that will ignite a revolution Unearthed from the bowels of an abandoned vault this ledger is more than just cryptic codes and numbers it is a damning testament to the Directorate of Order s corruption a system that has quantified the value of human lives and left a trail of devastation in its wake Forced unwillingly from a life of meticulous calculation Malik transforms into the beacon of a burgeoning resistance The ledger becomes the heart of their revolt its pages revealing the grim realities of exploitation and authoritarianism under the Directorate But with each line deciphered Malik must navigate not only the labyrinth of encrypted injustices but the moral quagmire of leading a revolution Join Malik in his harrowing journey as he allies with Juna a retired urban planner transforming the ruins into safe havens Tharin a battle hardened ex militarist seeking redemption through ethical combat and Lunos a technocrat fighting the Directorate s digital grip Together they decode the ledger s encrypted secrets each unveiling layer adding to their perilous mission to upend a regime that measures existence by cold arithmetic Their path is fraught with internal conflicts and external threats from tense clandestine meetings to deadly confrontations with the Directorate s enforcers The tension escalates as the ledger s revelation brings allies and foes into sharp focus Amidst the maelstrom the resilient spirit of survivors shines embodied by defiant souls like Zerk a gaunt leader with words that resonate through the tunnels of rebellion Faced with impossible choices the rebels grapple with the true cost of their revolution the lives it risks and demands From the reflective introspections of Malik as he balances cold data with raw emotion to Theo s fleeting impassioned existence that spurs the resistance each character delves into their struggles with conviction and sacrifice The convergence of these disparate lives reaches a fever pitch in the climactic uprising against the Directorate Against all odds they advance on the central citadel where the ledger s unveiling serves as a damning indictment and clarion call Binghamton Babylon Scott M. MacDonald,2015-08-31 In Binghamton Babylon Scott M MacDonald documents one of the crucial moments in the history of cinema studies the emergence of a cinema department at what was then the State University of New York at Binghamton now Binghamton University between 1967 and 1977 The department brought together a group of faculty and students who not only produced a remarkable body of films and videos but went on to invigorate the American media scene for the next half century Drawing on interviews with faculty students and visiting artists MacDonald weaves together an engaging conversation that explores the academic excitement surrounding the emergence of cinema as a viable subject of study in colleges and universities The voices of the various participants Steve Anker Alan Berliner Danny Fingerroth Hollis Frampton Ernie Gehr J Hoberman Ralph Hocking Ken Jacobs Bill T Jones Peter Kubelka Saul Levine Camille Paglia Phil Solomon Maureen Turim and many others tell the story of this remarkable period MacDonald concludes with an analysis of the pedagogical dimensions of the films that were produced in Binghamton including Larry Gottheim s Horizons Jacobs s Tom Tom the Piper s Son Gehr s Serene Velocity Frampton s Critical Mass and Nicholas Ray s final film We Can t Go Home Again
