The higher Hindūism in relation to Christianity Thomas Ebenezer Slater,1902 Faith Meets Faith Eric John Sharpe,1977 How are Christians with their claims of a definitive gospel salvation once for all achieved by Jesus to regard the beliefs of other religions Many different answers have been given particularly during this century when greater mobility and social change have made the questions of local and practical as well as theoretical and international interest The problems and the issues involved are well illustrated in Christian attitudes to Hinduism and it is these that Professor Sharpe discusses in his book After looking at the older orthodox views of the relationships between religions he considers the argument popular at the beginning of this century that Christ fulfils all religions the criticism of this thesis and the view that other religions whatever their merits are morally deficient Then after studying Hindu views of Christianity he follows development through the period between the wars and post war developments in Protestantism and in relation to Vatican II to the positive attitudes which are to be found today among adherents of both religions Publisher Hinduism and Christianity Nand Kishore Devaraja,1969 Hindu-Christian Dual Belonging Daniel J. Soars,Nadya Pohran,2022-03-03 This book focuses on dual belonging within Hindu Christian contexts Written by experts in a variety of fields the chapters explore the theological philosophical and cultural anthropological debates relating to religious pluralism religious language and social identity while addressing the fact that both Hindu and Christian forms of self understandings have been significantly moulded through their interactions in South Asia and across certain Euro American horizons The limits of the definition of dual belonging are tested via case studies and contributors address the question of whether there is anything distinctive about dual belonging across Christianity and Hinduism specifically A timely contribution to the emerging subject of dual religious belonging this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Hindu studies and Christian theology Hindu Christian comparative theology religious pluralism interreligious relations the sociology and anthropology of religion and comparative theology and philosophy Hinduism and Christianity John Robson,1905 Christianity and Hinduism Contrasted Charles Edward Trevelyan,1882 Hindu-Christian Meeting Point Within the Cave of the Heart Swami

With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained inter faith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialogue in India and asks why and how the practice of dialogue came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Unlike many other works in the area of inter faith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialogue model

WHAT EVERY HINDU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CHRISTIANITY leverages cutting edge scholarly researches in textual criticism and cognitive sciences to arrive at a reasonable understanding of Christian beliefs The findings it presents reveal a hitherto unknown face of Christianity to the rational Hindu It concludes that Christianity originated in a psychotic milieu Christian beliefs are self contradictory and theology invalidates the need to believe It explores the provocative question of whether Jesus is a myth It systematically argues that Christianity lacks an ethical framework Herem warfare is the Christian code of holy extermination Christian beliefs and practices may cause harm to both Hindus and Christians and concludes that Hinduism and Christianity cannot coexist It offers a prescription on and how to engage Christianity and why mutual respect cannot be the precondition for Hindu Christian engagement
