Hinduism, Buddhism, Zen Nancy Wilson Ross,1973 Modernism - Dada - Postmodernism Richard Sheppard,2000 Modernism Dada Postmodernism collects updates integrates and contextualizes the critic Richard Sheppard s essays on the historical avant garde Sheppard s topic in all of these essays is the modernist writers artists and philosophers linguistic and visual responses to a changed sense of reality and human nature Beginning with an overview of the problematics of European modernism Sheppard establishes the dialectical relationship between the cultural crisis that occurred during the period 1880 1936 and the different responses from European modernists and the avant garde With its combination of classic and new essays and its perspective on the theoretical avant garde modernism debate in the United States Sheppard s volume should give the specialist as well as the general reader an insight into the highest sample of European scholarly discourse on this subject Installation art as experience of self, in space and time Christine Vial Kayser,Sylvie Coëllier,2021-09-07 Installation art has modified our relationship to art for over fifty years by soliciting the whole body demonstrating its sensitivity to space surroundings and the living beings with which it is constantly interacting This book analyses this modification of perception through phenomenological approaches convoking Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty as well as Levinas Depraz and the neuroscientist Varela This theoretical framework is implicit in the various case studies which revisit works that have become classic or emblematic by Carl Andre Bruce Nauman Dan Graham inaugural experiments that remain available only through photographic and written archives by Jean Michel Sanejouand Philippe Parreno as well as the influence of the mode in the realm of music The book also examines the transference of this Western form to Asia revealing how it resonates with ancient Asian representations and practices often associated with the spiritual The distinct chapters underpin the role of space as a metaframe the common ground of the various installations While the nature and agency of space varies from social historical space leisurely or political space inner psychological space to shared empty space these installations reveal the chiasm between the individual body and the outside space The chapters bear testimony of the process in which the physical journey of the spectator s body within a material at times invisible space and its structural components takes place in time as a succession of micro experiences Installation art as experience of self in space and time adds to the existing literature of art history a level of theoretical experiential and transcultural analysis that will make this inquiry relevant to both university students and independent researchers in the academic fields of philosophy psychology aesthetics art theory and history religious and Asian studies Dada as Text, Thought and Theory Stephen Forcer,2017-07-05 The Dada movement revered as perhaps the purest form of cultural subversion and provocation in 20th century Europe has been a victim of the readiness with which cultural historians have swallowed its own propaganda Based on extensive close analysis of French language Dada work in its original form and offering English translations throughout this major reappraisal looks at a broad range of media and topics including poetry film philosophy and quantum physics in order to get beyond Dada's typecasting as avant garde anti hero Work by women writers and other marginalized figures combines with that of canonical Dadaists to present Dada in a radically new set of guises poetic and textually subtle intellectually and philosophically meaningful peaceable and quasi Buddhist and perhaps most uncomfortably of all conformist and reactionary Indian Book Reporter ,1969 In Search of Stanislavsky's Creative State on the Stage Gabriela Curpan,2021-04-13 This book rediscovers a spiritual way of preparing the actor towards experiencing that ineffable artistic creativity defined by Konstantin Stanislavski as the creative state Filtered through the lens of his unaddressed Christian Orthodox background as well as his yogic or Hindu interest the practical work followed the odyssey of the artist from being oneself towards becoming the character being structured in three major horizontal stages and developed on another three vertical interconnected levels Throughout the book Gabriela Curpan aims to question both the cartesian approach to acting and the realist psychological line generally viewed as the only features of Stanislavski's work This book will be of great interest to theatre and performance academics as well as practitioners in the fields of acting and directing Writing Sri Lanka Minoli Salgado,2007-01-24 Focusing on ways in which cultural nationalism has influenced both the production and critical reception of texts Salgado presents a detailed analysis of eight leading Sri Lankan writers Michael Ondaatje Romesh Gunasekera Shyam Selvadurai A Sivanandan Jean Arasanayagam Carl Muller James Goonewardene and Punyakante Wijenaike to rigorously challenge the theoretical cultural and political assumptions that pit insider against outsider resident against migrant and the authentic against the alien By interrogating the discourses of territoriality and boundary marking that have come into prominence since the start of the civil war Salgado works to define a more nuanced and sensitive critical framework that actively reclaims marginalized voices and draws upon recent studies in migration and the diaspora to reconfigure the Sri Lankan critical terrain Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology Kern Institute,E.C.L. During Caspers,2012-12-06 Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology E.C.L. During Caspers,2012-12-06 When in 1925 the initiative was taken by the Kern Institute Leiden to start the publication of an Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology the Board of the Institute could do so with confidence as it was sure of the assistance of scholars all over the world as to the supply of publications as well as of information With the help of this material a bibliography could be compiled by a small team of highly skilled archaeologists who could devote part of their time and attention to such a task for the benefit of their colleagues in all parts of the world Times since then have changed and circumstances have become less and less favourable To find classified labour for the compilation and editing of such a bibliography has become extremely difficult and this the more so as this work cannot be paid in accordance with the standards for this branch of classified documentation The work has to be done as a part of the daily routine work even a scholar in today's time is expected to perform and which he cannot but consider as being detrimental to the performing of those parts of his work that demand the use of those qualifications that actually make him the expert Indo-Asian Culture ,1973 Buddhism: A Complete Introduction: Teach
