A Father's Legacy Russell Leroux, 2015-07-09 I have been blessed with an amazing heritage Pentecost came to my family in 1904 when my grandfather's grandfather received the Holy Ghost on the back side of his farm one Sunday afternoon The Baptist church he was a member of was in the middle of revival and asked all present that morning to pray one hour before the evening service Before that time the Pentecostal experience of Acts Chapter Two had not been experienced in southern Missouri I was blessed by being raised by my grandparents for a time and growing up hearing those stories of America's discovery of the modern Pentecostal experience That was their legacy which they passionately handed down to me Now years later my daughter is grown and moved on with her life As I looked around me at all the things I have experienced over the years I began to ponder the question of what would be my Legacy What will I pass on to others what do I have to share Will anything that I have experienced be worth remembering in the ages to come That is the motivation for the pages that follow I want to share what is most important to me while I still have the time and ability to do so So that one day when I am gone future generations will have a voice to guide them and help them overcome the storms of life that I have already passed through Within these pages you will find a collection of essays and short stories that I wrote to share some of my deepest held beliefs and most private life lessons Some of my words may not meet the needs or approval of everyone who reads these pages I just pray that you will continue until the conclusion of this journey with me My hope is that hidden somewhere within the contents of A Father's Legacy My Legacy somehow you may find a grain of inspiration May God Bless you richly and guide your path with the light of His Word

Times ,1887 Market Rules Mark H. Rose,2018-11-17 Although most Americans attribute shifting practices in the financial industry to the invisible hand of the market Mark H Rose reveals the degree to which presidents legislators regulators and even bankers themselves have long taken an active interest in regulating the industry In 1971 members of Richard Nixon s Commission on Financial Structure and Regulation described the banks they sought to create as supermarkets Analogous to the twentieth century model of a store at which Americans could buy everything from soft drinks to fresh produce supermarket banks would accept deposits make loans sell insurance guide mergers and acquisitions and underwrite stock and bond issues The supermarket bank presented a radical departure from the financial industry as it stood composed as it was of local savings and loans commercial banks investment banks mutual funds and insurance firms Over the next four decades through a process Rose describes as grinding politics supermarket banks became the guiding model of the financial industry As the banking industry consolidated it grew too large while remaining too fragmented and unwieldy for politicians to regulate and for regulators to understand until in 2008 those supermarket banks such as Citigroup needed federal help to survive and prosper once again Rose explains the history of the financial industry as a story of individuals some well known like Presidents Kennedy Carter Reagan and Clinton Treasury Secretaries Donald Regan and Timothy Geithner and JP Morgan CEO Jamie Dimon and some less so though equally influential such as Kennedy s Comptroller of the Currency James J Saxon Citicorp CEO Walter Wriston and Bank of America CEOs Hugh McColl and Kenneth Lewis Rose traces the evolution of supermarket banks from the early days of the Kennedy administration through the financial crisis of 2008 and up to the Trump administration s attempts to modify bank rules Deeply researched and accessibly written Market Rules demystifies the major trends in the banking industry and brings financial policy to life The Philippine

Archipelago Yves Boquet,2017-04-19 This book presents an updated view of the Philippines focusing on thematic issues rather than a description region by region Topics include typhoons population growth economic difficulties agrarian reform migration as an economic strategy the growth of Manila the Muslim question in Mindanao the South China Sea tensions with China and the challenges of risk vulnerability and sustainable development Restoration in Action Against Desertification Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2020-01-08 This publication supports processes related to rural communities resilience in implementing land restoration of the Great Green Wall Programme on the ground It serves a dual purpose of consolidating biophysical operations and socio economic assessments and is mainly built on five year interventions and practical experiences gathered through Action Against Desertification The first part of the publication is a practical manual expressly created for stakeholders partners non governmental organizations and community based organizations Its purpose is to guide the implementation of restoration operations at scale on the ground as well as to provide detailed practical instructions based on the successful results obtained by Action Against Desertification The manual describes how to implement an innovative approach to the large scale restoration of degraded land for small scale farming This innovative approach consists of combining enrichment planting of native woody and fodder grass species and the preparation of large scale land for rainwater harvesting and soil permeability The second part of the manual introduces a methodology for socio economic assessments This easy to use approach is based on household surveys and can be used by socio economic experts to monitor evaluate and assess the socio economic impacts of the large scale restoration interventions Household surveys are not only used for impact assessment but can potentially serve to collect useful data needed to plan a restoration intervention Quantitative information is collected through carefully chosen standardized questions to households as samples

Making Uzbekistan Adeeb Khalid, 2015-12-21 In Making Uzbekistan Adeeb Khalid chronicles the tumultuous history of Central Asia in the age of the Russian revolution He explores the complex interaction between Uzbek intellectuals local Bolsheviks and Moscow to sketch out the flux of the situation in early Soviet Central Asia His focus on the Uzbek intelligentsia allows him to recast our understanding of Soviet nationalities policies Uzbekistan he argues was not a creation of Soviet policies but a project of the Muslim intelligentsia that emerged in the Soviet context through the interstices of the complex politics of the period Making Uzbekistan introduces key texts from this period and argues that what the decade witnessed was nothing short of a cultural revolution Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Hollywood War Films, 1937-1945 Michael S. Shull, David Edward Wilt, 2015-09-03 From 1937 through 1945 Hollywood produced over 1 000 films relating to the war This enormous and exhaustive reference work first analyzes the war films as sociopolitical documents Part one entitled The Crisis Abroad 1937 1941 focuses on movies that reflected America s increasing uneasiness Part two Waging War 1942 1945 reveals that many movies made from 1942 through 1945 included at least some allusion to World War II

The Roman Wall (Illustrations) Rev. John Collingwood Bruce, 2015-11-03 The famous Roman Wall which in former times protected southern Britain from the ravages of the northern tribes exhibits at this day remains more entire and forms a subject of study more interesting than is generally supposed Two authors of great learning have treated of this renowned structure Horsley in the Britannia Romana and Hodgson in the last volume of his History of Northumberland Both are treatises of considerable size and both are to a certain extent rare The Britannia Romana moreover describes the Wall not as it is but as it was more than a century ago Hodgson s work is of recent date and forms a valuable storehouse of nearly all that is known upon the subject The mind however of that amiable man and zealous antiquary was at the time of its preparation bending under the weight of his ill requited labours and he has failed to present his ample materials to the reader in that condensed and well arranged form which distinguishes his previous volumes and without which a book on antiquities will not arrest the attention of the general reader The following work may be regarded as introductory to the elaborate productions of Horsley and Hodgson The reader is not assumed to be acquainted with the technicalities of arch ology and at each advancing step the information is supplied which may render his course easy I have not attempted in the last part of the work to enumerate all the altars and inscribed stones which have been found upon the line of the Wall but have made a selection of those which are most likely to interest the general reader and to give him a correct idea of the nature and value of these remains In the body of the work I have endeavoured to furnish a correct delineation of the present condition of the Wall and its outworks All my descriptions are the result of personal observation To secure as great accuracy as possible I have read over many of my proof sheets on the spot which they describe The pictorial illustrations have been prepared with care and will give the reader who is not disposed to traverse the ground a correct idea of the state of the Barrier The wood cuts and plates illustrative of the antiquities found on the line have with the exception of a few coins introduced into the first Part of the volume and copied from the Monumenta Historica been prepared from original drawings taken for this work from the objects themselves I am not without hope that the well read antiquary will value these delineations for their beauty and accuracy To be continue in this ebook
