

The background of the entire cover is a romantic photograph of a man and a woman. The man is seen from the chest up, wearing a white shirt, and is holding the woman. The woman is leaning into him, her face partially visible. The lighting is soft and warm, with a golden-orange glow, suggesting a sunset or a candlelit room. The overall mood is intimate and sensual.

Exposing Lifestyle Television Gareth Palmer, 2016-04-15 In the last decade lifestyle television has become one of the most dominant television genres with certain shows now global brands with formats exploited by producers all over the world What unites these programmes is their belief that the human subject has a flexible malleable identity that can be changed within television friendly frameworks In contrast to the talk shows of the eighties and nineties where modest transformation was discussed as an ideal advances in technology combined with changing tastes and demands of viewers have created an appetite for dramatic transformations This volume presents case studies from across the lifestyle genre considering a variety of themes but with a shared understanding of the self as an evolving project driven by enterprise Written by an international team of scholars the collection will appeal to sociologists of culture and consumption as well as to scholars of media studies and media production throughout the world Catalog of Copyright Entries.
