development based on the Holy Trinity Part one analyzes the present state of the cultural and ecclesiastical situation in Canada identifying specific trends and aspects relating to the need for development of effective leadership in the church This section sets the stage for Part two where a theology of trinitarian leadership is developed based on the dynamic of perichoresis with the motif of a dance used to present a paradigm of transformational leadership Part three offers church based strategies for leadership development concluding with a creative application of the doxological formula that captures the thrust of the entire book and leads it to a finale that includes a benediction of hope for the church through this leadership model

The Prose Works of John Milton ...: Same 2d. book. The history of Britain. The history of Moscovia. Accedence commenced grammar. Index John Milton, James Augustus St. John, 1889 Our True Beloved Michael S. Whiting, 2024-10-17

C S Lewis's masterpiece The Four Loves published in 1960 provided the world with a Christian exploration of four dimensions of human love extolling the divine blessings and warning of the idolatrous distortions in familial belonging storge friendship as a common quest philia romantic desire for personal union eros and concluding with the perfection of divine unconditional love agape Whiting uses the four loves as a framework to interpret the Christian love of God in historical movements across Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Pentecostal Charismatic churches He illuminates the often reactionary and competing tensions swinging between emphases on loving God in liturgical ritual and worship storge the active moral life philia personal spiritual experience eros and approaches of faith to suffering agape Synthesizing a panoramic view of Christian history with philosophy literature and biblical reflection Whiting shows how the love of God is diminished when the loves become fractured He advocates for an integrated holistic love of God that both avoids excesses and challenges the modern narrative of secular progress

Rosenwein, 2021-09-21 We make sense of love with fantasies stories that shape feelings that are otherwise too overwhelming incoherent and wayward to be tamed For love is a complex bewildering and ecstatic emotion covering a welter of different feelings and moral judgments Drawing on poetry fiction letters memoirs and art and with the aid of a rich array of illustrations historian Barbara H Rosenwein explores five of our most enduring fantasies of love like minded union transcendent rapture selfless giving obsessive longing and insatiable desire Each has had a long and tangled history with lasting effects on how we in the West think about love today Yet each leads to a different conclusion about what we should strive for in our relationships If only we could peel back the layers of love and discover its true essence But love doesn't work like that it is constructed on the shards of experience story and feeling shared over time intertwined with other fantasies By understanding the history of how we have loved Rosenwein argues we may better navigate our own tumultuous experiences and perhaps write our own scripts *The Prose Works ...: A posthumous treatise on the Christian doctrine ...
