Elias, 2014-10-01

Key Themes for the Study of Islam examines the central themes and concepts indispensable to an informed understanding of Islamic religion and society From Gender and History to Prayer and Prophecy each authoritative chapter focuses on a single aspect of the religion and presents a critical discussion written by a world expert in that field Exposing as false the idea that Islam and Muslims are incomprehensible to Western culture this book will become the first choice for students and experts in religion from disparate fields who wish to know how Islam relates to vital concepts in religion and society today What is Islam? Shahab Ahmed, 2016

A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Islamic Studies in the Twenty-first Century Léon
