Abu Abdullah Muhammad Ibn Battuta was born in 1304 in Tangier, Morocco. He came from a rich family and studied Islamic Law like his father. Ibn Battuta was an amazing traveller. In his lifetime, he travelled 75,000 miles and visited over 40 countries from West Africa to India. When he was 21, he left home to go to Makkah on Hajj. His dream was to visit all the countries of the Muslim world and 'never, if possible, cover a road a second time.' Ibn Battuta travelled on foot, with caravans (because it was safer than travelling alone), but also on horse, camel or by boat. But which places did he visit? He started from the Middle-Eastern countries like Egypt and Syria and then visited Makkah. From there, he went to Iraq, Persia and East Africa.

Also, he explored the Black Sea area and then travelled to countries like India, Ceylon, and Spain. After 29 years of travelling, Ibn Battuta decided to write a book about his adventures with the help of a young man, Ibn Juzay. The title of the 1000-page book was 'A gift to those who contemplate' the wonders of cities and the marvels of travelling', but people also know it as 'The Journey' or 'Rihla'. Ibn Battuta was a very important and respected man, who is famous around the world because of his travels and his spirit of adventure.
