CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM'S ORIGINS Gabriel Aryeh, 2024-01-24 A BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM After several interactions with Muslims of distinct sects in the Bronx community NYC schools and the workplace through the decades Aryeh observed how some professing Christians were led to believe in the Islamic claim of Muhammad's legitimacy as a prophet Although a few maintained the belief that Jesus remained holy as a prophet they suggested he was a mere man and abandoned their past confessions regarding his divinity Nevertheless the more astounding claim many ex Christians and Muslims made suggested that the Jewish and Christian God found in the Bible identified as the same deity of the Qur'an Hence these claims above initiated the primary reasons for delving deep into the study of Islam and writing this book for the sake of not only reaching many believers who erred from Christianity but the Muslims who believed that Allah identified as the God of the Jews and Christians Indeed the enormous task of disproving Islam as an extension of the Abrahamic faith required many investigations into the questions raised by such astonishing claims This book makes deep inquiries into the historical and theological assertions found in the Islamic faith concerning Allah Muhammad and the religious practices observed today which have survived for little over fourteen centuries Consequentially the unfortunate misconceptions taught about Islam in many church pulpits since the early days of this researcher's youth stemmed from books found in academia and some Christian libraries which promoted a worldwide narrative by selective favorable historical accounts based on political ideologies instead of rigorous theological investigation The Christian perspective on Islam examines the theological origins of the Islamic faith by first investigating the geographical locations alleged as the nascent religion's early beginnings by exploring the historical and societal development of the Arab peoples Second this book probes the legitimacy of Muhammad as a divinely ordered prophet by consulting the Judaic traditions derived from the Jewish Scriptures explaining the qualifications of authentic prophethood Finally the sequential order of inquiry laid out above will highlight the emergence of the theology and residual religious rituals observed today in the Islamic world and therefore conclusively demonstrate that Islam remains unaligned with its Jewish and Christian predecessors What Every

Muhammad Reconsidered Anna Bonta Moreland,2020-03-30 Muhammad Reconsidered rectifies the failures of scholarly attempts to understand Islam in the West and to take Islamic theology seriously Engaging Islam from deep within the Christian tradition by addressing the question of the prophethood of Muhammad Anna Bonta Moreland calls for a retrieval of Thomistic thought on prophecy Without either appropriating the prophet as an unwitting Christian or reducing both Christianity and Islam to a common denominator Moreland studies Muhammad within a Christian theology of revelation This lens leads to a more sophisticated understanding of Islam one that honors the integrity of the Catholic tradition and argues for the possibility in principle of Muhammad as a religious prophet Moreland sets the stage for this inquiry through an intertextual reading of the key Vatican II documents on Islam and on Christian revelation She then uses Aquinas's treatment of prophecy to address the case of whether Muhammad is a prophet in Christian terms Muhammad Reconsidered examines the work of several Christian theologians including W Montgomery Watt Hans K ng Kenneth Cragg David Kerr and Jacques Jomier O P and then draws upon the practice of analogical reasoning in the theology of religious pluralism to show that a term in one religion in this case prophecy can have purchase in another religious tradition Muhammad Reconsidered not only is a constructive contribution to Catholic theology but also has enormous potential to help scholars reframe and comprehend Christian Muslim relations The Prophet & the Messiah Chawkat Moucarray, 2002-02-11 Calling Christians and Muslims to engage in genuine dialogue Chawkat Moucarray describes and compares the central doctrines and debunks the common misconceptions of Christianity and Islam A Christian Perspective of Islam J. Johnson, 2020-09-29 This volume serves to refute the popularly held belief that Christians and Muslims worship the same God showing that Christianity and Islam radically disagree on the nature and attributes of God It also argues that they present Jesus in contradictory terms regarding his divinity and the historicity of the crucifixion Additionally the two religions have fundamentally different understandings of human nature sin and scripture In honestly pointing out the reasons why these great religions cannot be reconciled this book will appeal to
