Young Muslims, Pedagogy and Islam M.G. Khan, 2013-02-27 For most young people religion and religiosity is something latent or private activated by private events or the passing of years For Muslim young people it can be activated by an incessant Islamophobic discourse that requires fundamental questions of relationships and belonging to be addressed in the public gaze whilst being positioned as representatives and explainers of their religion and their communities Written by a leading practitioner and academic in the field of youth and community work this multidisciplinary book reflects the way theoretical the social and the religious impacts on the lives of Muslim young people Young People, Popular Culture and Education Chris Richards, 2011-02-17 Youth Work and Islam Brian Belton, Sadek Hamid, 2012-01-01 Youth Work and Islam provides an eclectic focus reflecting it dual inspirations of its title It considers how youth work can be informed by Islam but at the same time looks at how practice can be pertinent to young Muslims their community and relationship with

Modernizing Islam John L. Esposito,François Burgat,2003 In recent years Islam has become a more visible force not only in North Africa the Middle East and Asia but also in Western Europe and the United States Greater attention to religious observance prayer fasting dress pilgrimage has accompanied the creation of new institutions mosques finance houses insurance companies schools clinics and hospitals Religiously inspired social and political movements have proliferated Only a few decades ago Muslims were virtually invisible in Europe and America Today increased immigration has changed the religious landscape of the West Mosques and Islamic centers are found in European and American cities and towns Muslims are visible in nearly every area of social and political life A list of major Islamic cities and populations today must include not only Cairo Tunis Damascus and Islamabad but also Paris London New York and Detroit This demographic and cultural shift requires that we speak not only of the relationship between the traditional Islamic world and the West but also about Islam in the West It has also meant that Islam has been obliged to modernize to grapple with its status as a minority religion in some parts of the world and a majority one in others Modernizing Islam speaks to the significance origins influences and implications of Islam s changes and thus to the various ways in which this religion is becoming a truly global force shaping such realms as law politics education and ethics among many others

British Muslim Politics P. Akhtar, 2013-10-09 Although there has emerged a huge interest in the Muslim communities in Britain since 9 11 and 7 7 few academic studies have focused on the political processes within Muslim communities and the impacts these have on civic engagement This book examines the political biographies and religious identities of British Muslims of Pakistani descent

Islamizing Intimacies Nancy J. Smith-Hefner, 2021-05-31 One of the great transformations presently sweeping the Muslim world involves not just political and economic change but the reshaping of young Muslims styles of romance courtship and marriage Nancy J Smith Hefner takes up the personal lives and sexual attitudes of educated Muslim Javanese youth in the city of Yogyakarta to explore the dramatic social and ethical changes taking place in Indonesian society Drawing on more than 250 interviews over a fifteen year period her vivid well crafted ethnography is full of insights into the real life struggles of young Muslims and framed by a deep understanding of Indonesia s wider debates on gender and youth culture The changes among Muslim youth reflect an ongoing if at times unsteady attempt to balance varied ideals ethical concerns and aspirations On the one hand growing numbers of young people show a deep and pervasive desire for a more active role in their Islamic faith On the other even as they seek a more self conscious and scripture based profession of faith many educated youth aspire to personal relationships similar to those seen among youth elsewhere a greater measure of informality openness and intimacy than was typical for their parents and grandparents generations Young women in particular seek freedom for self expression employment and social fulfillment outside of the home Smith Hefner pays particular attention to their shifting roles and perspectives because it is young women who have been most dramatically affected by the upheavals transforming this Muslim majority country Although deeply personal the changing aspirations of young Muslims have immense implications for social and public life throughout Indonesia The fruit of a longitudinal study begun shortly after the fall of the authoritarian New Order government and the return to democracy in 1998 1999 the book reflects Smith Hefner s nearly forty years of anthropological engagement with the island of Java and her continuing exploration into what it means to be both modern and Muslim The culture of the new Muslim youth the author shows through all its nuances and variations reflects the inexorable abandonment of traditions and practices deemed incompatible with authentic Islam and an ongoing and profound Islamization of intimacies Muslim Youth Mohammad Siddique Seddon, Fauzia Ahmad, 2012-01-12 Many Muslim societies regardless of location are displaying a youth bulge where more than half their populations are under the age of 25 An increasingly globalized western culture is rapidly eroding traditional ideas about society from the family to the state At the same time there is a view that rampant materialism is creating a culture of spiritual emptiness in which demoralization and pessimism easily find root For young Muslims these challenges may be compounded by a growing sense of alienation as they face competing ideologies and divergent lifestyles Muslim youth are often idealized as the future of Islam or stigmatized as rebelling against their parental values and suffering identity crises These experiences can produce both positive and negative reactions from intellectual engagement and increasing spiritual maturity to emotional rejectionism narrow identity politics and violent extremism This book addresses many of the central issues currently facing young Muslims in both localized and globalized contexts through engaging with the work of academics youth work practitioners and those working in non governmental organizations and civic institutions

Islamophobia and its consequences on Young People Ingrid Ramberg, 2015-06-01 Islamophobia can be defined as the fear of or prejudiced viewpoint towards Islam Muslims and matters pertaining to them Whether it takes the shape of daily forms of racism and discrimination or more violent forms Islamophobia is a violation of human rights and a threat to social cohesion Young people are of course not immune to this Young men and women are obviously affected when they become targets of Islamophobic attacks and abuse But just as importantly they are also concerned by the general rise in discrimination and xenophobia whether it be active or passive At this seminar held in Budapest in June 2004 Islamophobia was discussed within the wider context of racism and discrimination in Europe in new and old forms The discussions also covered the troubling resurgence of Anti Semitic attacks Romaphobia and segregation of Roma communities and persistent forms of discrimination against visible minorities The report of Ingrid Ramberg provides a personal account of the issues raised at the seminar as well as a very useful documentation of the presentations workshops and debates It also includes a series of policy recommendations aimed at preventing Islamophobia and fostering intercultural respect and cooperation
