war and security studies and the law of armed conflict      Law, Empire, and the Sultan Samy A. Ayoub, 2020 Introduction Ibn Nujaym The Father of Late anafism The Sul an Says Ottoman Sultanatic Authority in Late anaf Tradition Ottoman Rationale for Codification The Mecelle Conclusion      Just War in Religion and Politics Jacob Neusner, Bruce D. Chilton, R. E. Tully, 2013-04-18 The basis of this collection of essays is the reading of a common topic from different perspectives Half of the book is devoted to the comparative study of religions and the courses are offered by religion professors The other half is shaped by social science approaches and the seminars are given mainly by social science professors We aim to compare and contrast not only positions but also methods of learning We examine theories of the just war in diverse cultural contexts and their disciplinary settings Space is devoted to the study of papers prepared for this project by specialists in various disciplines mainly but not exclusively faculty of Bard College and the United States Military Academy at West Point      Kill Boxes: Facing the Legacy of US-Sponsored Torture, Indefinite Detention, and Drone Warfare Richard Falk, Elisabeth Weber, 2017 Kill Boxes addresses the legacy of US sponsored torture indefinite detention and drone warfare by deciphering the shocks of recognition that humanistic and artistic responses to violence bring to consciousness if readers and viewers have eyes to face them Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the hooded man from Abu Ghraib became iconic subsequent chapters take up less culturally visible scenes of massive violations of human rights to bring us face to face with these shocks and the forms of recognition that they enable and disavow We are addressed in the photo of the hooded man all the more so as he was brutally prevented in our name from returning the camera s and thus our gaze We are addressed in the screams that turn a person tortured in our name into howling flesh We are addressed in poems written in the Guant namo Prison camp however much American authorities try to censor them in our name We are addressed by the victims of the US drone wars however little American citizens may have heard the names of the places obliterated by the bombs for which their taxes pay And we know that we are addressed in spite of a number of strategies of brutal refusal of heeding those calls Providing intensive readings of philosophical texts by Jean Am ry Jacques Derrida and Christian Thomasius with poetic texts by Franz Kafka Paul Muldoon and the poet detainees of Guant namo Bay Prison Camp and with artistic creations by Sallah Edine Sallat the American artist collective Forkscrew and an international artist collective from Pakistan France and the US Kill Boxes demonstrates the complexity of humanistic responses to crimes committed in the name of national security The conscious or unconscious knowledge that we are addressed by the victims of these crimes is a critical factor in discussions on torture on indefinite detention without trial as practiced in Guant namo and in debates on the strategies to circumvent the latter altogether as practiced in drone warfare and its extrajudicial assassination program The volume concludes with an Afterword by Richard Falk      Freedom of Expression in Islam Muhammad Khalid Masud, Kari Vogt, Lena Larsen, Christian Moe, 2021-01-28 In Muslim countries apostasy and blasphemy laws are defended on the grounds that they are based on Islamic Shari a and intended to protect religion But blasphemy and apostasy laws can be used both to suppress thought and debate and to harass religious minorities both inside and outside Islam This book comprising contributions from Muslim scholars experts and activists critically and constructively engages with the theological historical and legal reasoning behind the most restrictive state laws around the world to open up new ways of thinking The book focuses on the struggle within Muslim societies in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Indonesia where blasphemy and apostasy laws serve powerful groups to silence dissent and stifle critical thought The first part of the book covers the development of the law in shifting historical circumstances and surveys the interpretations of Qur'anic verses that seem to affirm freedom of religion The second part examines the present politics and practices of prosecuting alleged blasphemers and or apostates in Muslim countries The third part looks to the future and where reforms of the law could be possible Debates on Islam and freedom of expression are often cast in polarizing terms of rights versus religion East versus West This volume avoids such approaches by bringing together a diverse group of Muslim scholars and activists with the knowledge commitment and courage to contest repressive interpretations of religion and provide a resource for reclaiming the human rights to freedom of expression and belief
