Fixing Fractured Nations R. Wirsing, E. Ahrari, 2010-02-26. Asia's rising power and wealth offer its many oppressed ethnic minorities hope for greater political freedom and an end to violence. But the reality of this hope is cast into doubt by acute separatist conflict. This book provides fresh and factual assessments of separatist struggles and prospects for conflict resolution in eight countries of Asia.

The Future of China-Russia Relations James A. Bellacqua, 2010-02-05. Relations between China and Russia have evolved dramatically since their first diplomatic contact, particularly during the twentieth century. During the past decade, China and Russia have made efforts to strengthen bilateral ties and improve cooperation on a number of diplomatic fronts. The People's Republic of China and the Russian Federation maintain exceptionally close and friendly relations, strong geopolitical and regional cooperation, and significant levels of trade. In The Future of China-Russia Relations, scholars from around the world explore the current state of the relationship between the two powers and assess the prospects for future cooperation and possible tensions in the new century. The contributors examine Russian and Chinese perspectives on a wide range of issues including security, political relationships, economic interactions, and defense ties. This collection explores the energy courtship between the two nations and analyzes their interests and policies regarding Central Asia, the Korean Peninsula, and Taiwan.

Representations of Islam in the News Stefan Mertens, Hedwig de Smaele, 2016-04-15. The representation of Islam is unquestionably a critical test for comparing journalistic reporting across countries and cultures. The Islamic religion has weight in international reporting, defining what we termed foreign Islam, but it is also the religion of numerically important minority groups residing in Europe: national Islam. The first part of the book is setting the scene. Three chapters provide insights in dominant patterns of the representation of Islam as detected by various authors and studies involved with Islam representation in Europe. Part two, the core section of the book, contributes to the development of the field of comparative journalism studies by comparing several countries and six media systems in Western Europe: the Dutch speaking part of Belgium (Flanders), the French speaking part of Belgium (Wallonia), the Netherlands, France, Germany, and the U.K. Part three of this book presents two reception studies: one qualitative and the other quantitative. Equally important as the bulk of attention goes to Western Europe is the extension towards the representation of Muslims and Islam outside Western Europe. Part four of the book is devoted to the representation of Islam

Sutter, 2019-10-17 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this cogent book provides an overview of the historical context and enduring patterns of U S relations with Asia Noted scholar Robert G Sutter offers a balanced analysis of post Cold War dynamics in Asia which involve interrelated questions of security economics national identity and regional institution building He demonstrates how these critical concerns manifest a complex mix of realist liberal and constructivist tendencies that define the regional order He describes how the United States has responded to Asia's growing strength and importance while at the same time trying to maintain its leading position as an Asian power despite China's rising influence Considering the most important transition in American policy toward Asia since the end of the Cold War Sutter assesses the growing U S China rivalry that now dominates both regional dynamics in the Asia Pacific and U S policy in the region Geopolitics of Energy in Central Asia Ramakrushna Pradhan, 2020-12-23 This book focuses on the geopolitics of Central Asia which has emerged as the new fertile ground for oil and energy resources It analyses the scramble for energy and control over the region by many nations and their diplomatic manoeuvrings to ensure energy sufficiency and economic growth The book provides a quantitative analysis of the Central Asian energy potential and offers an understanding of the unique position that each country occupies in the geopolitics of oil and energy in the region It looks at aggressive foreign policies by countries like the US China the European Union Japan Israel Iran and Pakistan focusing primarily on India's position and strategies in the region within the new great game The book further examines the dynamics between Central Asia and India and India's policies for geopolitical engagement and diversification of energy sources This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of political studies international relations economics sociology and Asian studies It will also be useful for policymakers and professionals working in the field of energy security and geo economics The Kazakhs Chokan Laumulin, Murat Laumulin, 2009-08-01 Here is a well informed concise introduction to the culture and history of the vast territory of Kazakhstan equivalent to the size of Western Europe located at the centre of geographical Eurasia Written by two brothers one a distinguished scholar and the other well known in Kazakhstan's media the book focuses on the Kazakh people who today make up over half the population of some 15 million Topics covered include Kazakhstan's historical heritage including the Soviet legacy its geography and the national psychology religion and culture and how to do business Kazakhstan first appeared on the world stage in 2001 with the opening of its oil pipeline linking its vast Tengiz oil field with the Russian Black Sea port of Novorossiysk China's New Diplomacy Professor Zhiqun Zhu, 2013-11-28 In the first edition 2010 Zhiqun Zhu examined the rationale and strategies of China's new multi directional diplomacy since the early 1990s and assessed its impact on international political economy as well as responses from the international community This fully revised second edition is still based on extensive research addressing these and other important policy issues whilst incorporating the latest major Chinese diplomatic activities since the last edition was published. This book continues to cover Chinese initiatives in the Middle East, Latin America and the Caribbean, Africa, Central Asia, Southeast Asia and the South Pacific and studies China's current efforts to secure energy and other resources to expand trade and investment and to enhance soft power around the world. The author further evaluates how China's activities affect these regions' political economy and how the international community, especially the United States, has reacted to China's new diplomacy. Whilst continuing to answer some lingering questions about Chinese foreign policy and its implications for both China and the international community as they become increasingly interdependent, this paperback edition is adapted for classroom use and provides questions for discussion to help readers review the key empirical and theoretical points of each chapter.
