Islam The West And The Challenges Of Modernity:

Islam, the West and the Challenges of Modernity Tariq Ramadan, 2009-09-01 Tariq Ramadan attempts to demonstrate using sources which draw upon Islamic thought and civilization that Muslims can respond to contemporary challenges of modernity without betraying their identity The book argues that Muslims nourished by their own points of reference can approach the modern epoch by adopting a specific social political and economic model that is linked to ethical values a sense of finalities and spirituality Rather than a modernism that tends to impose Westernization it is a modernity that admits to the pluralism of civilizations religions and cultures Table of Contents Foreword Introduction History of a Concept The Lessons of History Part 1 At the shores of Transcendence between God and Man Part 2 The Horizons of Islam Between Man and the Community Part 3 Values and Finalities The Cultural Dimension of the Civilizational Face to Face Conclusion Appendix Index Tariq Ramadan is a professor of Islamic Studies at the University of Oxford and a visiting professor in Identity and

Loopesko, 2016-06-07 This book seeks to offer an interpretation of how terrorism has become a tool of Muslim radicals and why it is completely at odds with the teaching of Islam It claims that terrorism has nothing to do with Islam as a religion but the evolution of Muslims especially in the past one thousand years has created an environment in which fanaticism radicalism and violence can flourish Supported by double standards by Western powers and active backing for corrupt governments and groups Islamic terrorism came into being It presents an overview of how Islamic thought in many parts of the Muslim world has become rigid and frozen and grounds for hoping that change in that thought may come from a perhaps surprising place It suggests the role that both Muslim and Western societies have played and will continue to play in contributing to reforming Islam Our purpose is not to provide a thorough proof of our ideas but to spark discussion and dialogue both in Muslim and non Muslim communities and ideally between the two as to how Islam can regain in world thought and civilization the honored place it had during the Golden Age of Islam

Islam in the West Abe W. Ata, Jan A. Ali, 2018-08-28 The bombings in New York and Washington in 2001 and subsequent terrorist attacks in different countries of the West have led to fast changing socio cultural and political contexts where Islam has been depicted as a global threat The meaning of being a Muslim has undergone rapid transformation with the interplay of perceptions and misperceptions impacted by for instance the Iranian Revolution of 1978 9 the Lockerbie bombing in 1988 the Gulf War of 1990 1 and the clash of civilizations thesis propagated by Samuel Huntington in 1993 This book examines the way Muslims and mainstream societies in the West perceive each other by taking into account themes like cultural pluralism media religious education interfaith dialogue and so on It argues that Muslims are not defined solely by their faith but as an emerging group which is self critical reflective and focused on clearing the misconceptions associated with their identity Further it posits that Westerners who are more knowledgeable about Muslims usually express positive opinions about Islam thereby arguing that the knowledge about and attitudes towards Islam are interrelated Islam Between Culture and Politics B. Tibi,2001-11-07 Bassam Tibi offers a radical solution to the problems faced by Islam in a rapidly changing and globalizing world He proposes a depoliticization of the faith and the introduction of reforms to embrace secular democracy pluralism civil society and individual human rights The alternative to this is the impasse of fundamentalism The pivotal argument is that Islam is being torn between the pressure for cultural innovation and a defensive move towards the politicization of its symbols for non religious ends Islam Between Culture and Politics Bassam Tibi,2005-08-31 Bassam Tibi offers a radical solution to the problems faced by Islam in a rapidly changing and globalizing world He proposes a depoliticization of the faith and the introduction of reforms to embrace secular democracy pluralism civil society and individual human rights The alternative to this is the impasse of fundamentalism The pivotal argument is that Islam is being torn between the pressure for cultural innovation and a defensive move towards the politicization of its symbols for non religious ends Islamic Studies in the Twenty-first Century Léon Buskens,Annemarie Sandwijk,2025-10-01 In recent decades traditional methods of philology and intellectual history applied to the study of Islam and Muslim societies have been met with considerable criticism from rising generations of scholars who have turned to the social sciences most notably anthropology and social history for guidance This change has been accompanied by the rise of new fields studying for example Islam in Europe and Africa and new topics such as the role of gender This collection surveys these transformations and others taking stock of the field and showing new paths forward Islam, the West, and Tolerance A. Tyler,2008-04-14 This book provides an honest assessment of the contemporary relationship between Western and Islamic cultures and puts forth the cross cultural idea of tolerance as one invaluable approach for affecting peaceful coexistence Islam and Modernity Abdessalem, Rafik,2019-07-18 In this compelling book Rafik Abdessalem unpacks two major lines of thought Firstly he examines why many Westerners dismiss Islam s vast intellectual social theological and cultural heritage as flawed violent rigid and fanatical despite knowing virtually nothing about it He usefully traces the genesis of this attitude focusing on how scholars such as Weber Habermas and others have helped to consolidate the West s view of itself as civilised superior developed and progressive and how the demonisation of Islam acts as a necessary foil for these notions Secondly he explains that Islam is subject to a variety of interpretive choices and schools of thought ranging from legalistic fundamentalism through rigid rationalism to spiritual Sufism By treating Islam secularity and modernity as distinct and separate rather than as interconnected and overlapping Abdessalem makes no attempt to reconcile Islam with modernity or secularity nor does he place one in opposition to the other Instead he looks at the interconnections between these broad and complex subjects Abdessalem s analysis is useful in encouraging us to rethink both modernity and Islam and their relationship with each other In this rethinking lies the potential for a better understanding of the geopolitics of what is often called the Muslim world including the MENA region
