The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles

Muqarnas Oleg Grabar, 1990-03 Essays in Islamic Art and Architecture Abbas Daneshvari, 1981-01-01 Beauty and Islam Valerie Gonzalez, 2001-08-24

Beauty and Islam explores aspects of aesthetics in classical Islamic thought in the light of contemporary theories offering new perspectives on Islamic art and architecture with examples ranging from the Qur'an and the Alhambra to the works of present day artists and philosophers Tracing the roots of Islamic aesthetics back to the works of the great philosophers of the Middle Ages such as Avicenna and Averroes Valerie Gonzalez finds that aesthetic theory in Islam must be seen within the much wider context of parallel thinking on theology ethics physics and metaphysics

Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami, 2013-12-20

What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition's preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within

Early Islamic Art and Architecture Jonathan M. Bloom, 2017-05-15 This volume deals with the formative period of Islamic art to c 950 and the different approaches to studying it Individual essays deal with architecture ceramics coins textiles and manuscripts as well as with such broad questions as the supposed prohibition of images and the relationships between sacred and secular art An introductory essay sets each work in context it is complemented by a bibliography for further reading Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29 When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics including painted manuscripts objects architectural decoration architecture and urban planning and photography Bringing together scholars with diverse methodologies who work on a geographical span stretching from India to Spain and Nigeria and across a temporal spectrum from the thirteenth to the twenty first century this original book also poses engaging questions about the boundaries of the field Islamic Art and Beyond Oleg Grabar, 2006 The articles selected for Islamic Art and Beyond the third in the set of four selections of articles by Oleg Grabar illustrate how the author's study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen,1987 Islamic Art in Context Robert Irwin,1997 Robert Irwin delves deep into the cultures of the Islamic world to survey the exquisite arts of painting architecture porcelain enamel manuscript illumination metalwork calligraphy textiles and more Including 217 illustrations 148 in full color the book covers the earliest foundations of Islam through the brilliant high point of the 17th century

Muqarnas Oleg Grabar,1988-12 Muqarnas An Annual on the Visual Cultures of the Islamic World is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources Islamic Art and Beyond Oleg Grabar,2024-08-01 Islamic Art and Beyond is the third in a set of four volumes of studies on Islamic art by Oleg Grabar Between them they bring together more than eighty articles studies and essays work spanning half a century by a master of the field Each volume takes a particular section of the topic the three other volumes being entitled Early Islamic Art 650 1100 Islamic Visual Culture 1100 1800 and Jerusalem Reflecting the many incidents of a long academic life they illustrate one scholar s attempt at making order and sense of 1400 years of artistic growth They deal with architecture painting objects iconography theories of art aesthetics and ornament and they seek to integrate our knowledge of Islamic art with Islamic culture and history as well as with the global concerns of the History of Art In addition to the articles selected each volume contains an introduction which describes often in highly personal ways the context in which Grabar s scholarship developed and the people who directed and mentored his efforts The articles in the present volume illustrate how the author s study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth Was it a faith or a combination of social historical and cultural events And how has Islamic art impacted on the contemporary arts of the Islamic world The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world The Islamic examples allow for the development of new intellectual positions for the history and criticism of the arts everywhere
