decades has been accompanied by a host of interesting questions and challenges One of the critical challenges is how Islamic financial institutions can be motivated to participate in the equity like profit and loss sharing PLS contracts It is observed that Islamic banks are reluctant to participate in the pure PLS scheme which is manifested by the rising concentration of investment on murabaha or mark up financing This phenomenon has been the hotbed of academic criticism on the contemporary practice of Islamic banking This book explains the murabaha syndrome in light of the incentive provided by the current institutional framework and what are the changes required in the governance structure to mend this anomaly

God and the IRS Samuel D. Brunson, 2018-04-19 Provides a coherent way to think about the intersection of religious practice and taxes Banking and Economic Rent in Asia Yasushi Suzuki, Mohammad Dulal Miah, Manjula K. Wanniarachchige, S.M. Sohrab Uddin, 2017-03-31 A stable and sound financial system plays a critical role in mediating funds from surplus units to investors making it a prerequisite for economic development Financial intermediaries have been vulnerable to adverse changes in the local and global economy and experienced frequent bubble and bust episodes historically Analyses of financial crises reveal that the incentive created by neo liberal financial principles is inconsistent with stable financial systems and viable solutions require structuring institutions in a way that incentives are well aligned with the fundamental principles of financial systems By drawing on the theoretical framework of the financial restraint model this book analyses financial sectors rents or bank rents and their effects on banks performance and stability and presents evidence on the relationship between rent and incentive through case studies of both developed and developing countries

The Future of Islamic Banking and Finance in Indonesia Romi Adetio Setiawan, 2023-07-20 Sharia compliance is the raison d'être of Islamic banks All of their instruments and activities should be based on sharia principles which unfortunately exposes them to greater risks than their conventional counterparts regulated under the dual banking system in Indonesia These include inconsistencies between fatwas unique reputational risks and inefficiencies in the regulatory framework governing Islamic banks This book critically examines the less studied issue of developing an Islamic banking regulatory and supervisory framework that considers the risk pressures faced by Islamic banks operations in an Indonesian financial sector dominated by conventional banks The book assesses the extent to which the global financial standards of the Basel Accords have been followed by Islamic Banks in Indonesia with respect to their regulation supervision and risk management to highlight the unresolved tensions in the multiple regulatory and supervisory institutions The book proposes a middle ground approach that accommodates modification of the existing financial regulatory and supervisory system in line with international best practice The reforms proposed in this book offer a way for financial regulatory and supervisory agencies to further develop modern Islamic law and finance The book will be a valuable resource for scholars and policymakers interested in the dual banking system in Indonesia
