Nicholson, 2009-06 Experts Sufism the religious philosophy of Islam is described in the oldest extant definition as the apprehension of divine realities and Mohammedan mystics are fond of calling themselves Ahl al Haqq the followers of the Real In attempting to set forth their central doctrines from this point of view I shall draw to some extent on materials which I have collected during the last twenty years for a general history of Islamic mysticism a subject so vast and many sided that several large volumes would be required to do it anything like justice Here I can only sketch in broad outline certain principles methods and characteristic features of the inner life as it has been lived by Moslems of every class and condition from the eighth century of our era to the present day The Sufi who sets out to seek God calls himself a traveler salik he advances by slow stages maqamat along a path tariqat to the goal of union with Reality Poetry and Mysticism in Islam Amin Banani, Richard Hovannisian, Georges Sabagh, 1994-08-25 Mawlana Jalal al Din Rumi was one of the greatest poets and mystics of the Islamic world He was born in Balkh Korasan in AD 1207 and died in Konya Turkey in AD 1273 This book is an examination of his spiritual and literary heritage As Annemarie Schimmel the recipient of the Eleventh Giorgio Della Vida Award in Islamic Studies has written no other mystic and poet from the Islamic world is as well known in the West as Rumi and she more than any Western scholar is his most celebrated and eloquent interpreter The scholars who Professor Schimmel has invited to share in her tribute have all added new dimensions to an understanding of Rumi and to his impact on the Islamic world The Mystics of Islam Reynold Alleyne Nicholson, 1914 Mystics Of Islam Reynold A. Nicholson, 2010-08-01 The Mystics of Islam first published in 1914 has long been recognized as a classic and definitive introduction to the message of Sufism In this short but comprehensive work R A Nicholson who was one of the greatest Islamic scholars of the early 20th century provides the general reader with an easy approach to the study of Islamic mysticism He gives a broad outline of Sufism and describes the key principles methods and characteristic features of the inner life as it has been lived by Muslims of every class and condition from the 8th century onwards Many quotations are given mainly in the author's own fine translations from the original Arabic and Persian Studies in Islamic Mysticism

An Examination of the Mystic Tendencies in Islam Zuhuru'd-Din Ahmad, 2007-03 AN EXAMINATION Vff THE MYSTIC TENDENCIES 4N ISLAM IN THE LIGHT OP THE QURAN AND TRADITIONS BY M M ZUHURUD DiN AHMAD M A LL B Professor of Logic and Philosophy at the Ismail College Andheri Bombay Teacher Post Graduates Classes at the Bombay University Sometime University Lecturer at Muslim University Aligarh and at Islamia College Calcutta Bombay Printed by Hosang T Anklesaria at the Fort Printing Press No 1 Parsi Bazar Street Fort Bombay and published by Prof M M 5 uhur ud din Ahmad Pali Road Bandra Dedicated TO Mr AHMADBHOY FAZALBHOY KARIMBHOY B A CANTAB BAR AT LAW a scholar and patron of scholarship in token of his generous help ivithout which the book could not have been published PEEFACE The aim of this book is to explain how mys ticism originated and developed in the Islamic world The author has made an attempt to analyse the chief elements of the so called Islamic mysticism and to show in what way its basic principles are related to the fundamental tenets of Islam It was necessary for this purpose to give a brief account of the founder of Islam and his companions and to show how their life could have helped to suggest and develop the chief mystic theories among the Muslims It is purported to be a criticism of the origin and development of the Sufi movement among the Muslims in the light of the Quran and Traditions of the prophet the two chief sources of knowledge about Islam Western orientalists have been writing volu minous books with regard to the development of Mystic theories in the Islamic world But very often their efforts are marred by their reli ance on the works of unknown authors Their inferences from such works give an impression to the readers that the Muslim Mystics had lived a life absolutely different from the life and tenets of the founder of Islam Their writings seem to suggest that Muslim saints had chalked out for themselves a path of spiritual progress which had yi very little in common with the path of the prophet and his companions and almost invariably aim at proving that this new path founded by these saints in some way made amends for the inherent defects of Islam as a theory of life There is nothing farther from the truth than this suggestion of the Western scholars The present writer has made an humble attempt to prove that the Muslim saints the original founders of the different Sufi sects were pious Muslims trying to follow the path of the prophet like the rest of believers differing only in this respect that they were distinguished for their sincerity piety love and fear of God and their zeal in following the prophet in every detail of conduct The later accretions to the Sufi theories were partly due to the peculiar conditions of the disin tegrating and degenerating Islamic society and partly

due to the foreign influences which in the end deprived the Islamic faith of its pristine purity Various movements started in the Islamic world with a view to purging Islamic society of foreign elements have also been briefly described in the end The author has tried to rely on well known Sufi writers and has as far as possible avoided reference to books of doubtful authority The works consulted are given in the footnotes in their respective places My thanks are due to Dr Sir Badhakrishna at present the Vice Chancellor of Andhra University who went through the manuscript when he was Chairman of the Post Graduates Studies at Calcutta My special thanks however are due to my esteemed friend Dr U M Daudpota M A Ph D Cantab Professor of Arabic at the Ismatf College for reading the manuscript for correcting the proofs and for directing me with regard to the treatment of the subject But for his scholarly help which he gave at the expense of his most valuable time the book could not have been what it is now

Islamic Mysticism T. C. Rastogi, 1982

Studies in Islamic Mysticism Reynold Nicholson, 2016-06-07 Professor Nicholson examines the life work and teaching of three of the most important of the early Sufis According to Professor Nicholson Sufism lies at the heart of both the religious eschatology and the popular practice of Islam

Sufism and Society John Curry, Erik Ohlander, 2012-06-12 This book examines the relationship between Sufism and society in the later medieval and early modern Islamic world Thematically organized it includes case studies drawn from the Middle Eastern Turkic Persian and South Asian regions It looks to reconceptualize the study of Sufism during an under researched period of its history
