Vincent J. Cornell, Bruce B. Lawrence

Islamic Prayer Times 2014:

Inside Salafi-Jihadist Governance Marta Furlan, 2025-09-23 In the years following the Arab Spring a number of Islamist insurgent groups conquered swaths of territory across the Middle East and North Africa and began governing civilian populations These groups have been faced with the complexities of administering justice collecting taxes and providing public services such as health care and education How do Salafi jihadist armed groups which typically claim to be committed to ideological purity approach administration and what does this reveal about rule by insurgent forces This book is a groundbreaking comparative exploration of Salafi jihadist governance drawing on in depth case studies of the Islamic State in western Iraq and eastern Syria Hayat Tahrir al Sham in northwestern Syria and al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula in southern Yemen Marta Furlan examines rebels experiments in ruling considering issues such as the treatment of non Muslims the extent of civilian participation the use of coercive measures and the scope of social and political change She assesses whether there is a single model of Salafi jihadist governance the degree to which ideology and doctrine inform the behavior of rebel rulers and the similarities and differences between Salafi jihadists and other armed nonstate groups Offering a window into the inner workings of government and civilian life under Islamist power Inside Salafi Jihadist Governance sheds new light on rule by nonstate groups more broadly

Companion to Islamic Spirituality offers a fresh and revitalized view of all aspects of spirituality in Islam. It is a must-have scholarly resource for advanced undergraduates, graduate students, instructors, and scholars studying Islam, spirituality, and Asian and Middle Eastern history, as well as general readers with an interest in the subject. The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed, 2024-03-21. Repositioning mosques as social, cultural, and political spaces, this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates: the religious identity of Britain, secularisation, the far right, and terrorism, and gender equality. Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life, Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War. Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study, drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves. The Muslim congregation, a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain, is examined, and issues of diversity, denomination, sacredness, and society are explored. The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall, Girish Prayag, 2019-05-20. The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses, communities, destinations, and the wider socio-political context. It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism. The book examines halal hospitality and lodging, Islamic markets, product developments, heritage certification, and emerging and future trends and issues. It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and, in doing so, emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal, as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic. Written by highly regarded international academics, it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society. This handbook will be of significant interest to upper-level students, researchers, and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism, Hospitality, Food Studies, Marketing, Religious Studies, Geography, Sociology, and Islamic Studies. Medina by the Bay Maryam Kashani, 2023-07-07. From the Black Power movement and state surveillance to Silicon Valley and gentrification, Medina by the Bay examines how multiracial Muslim communities in the San Francisco Bay Area survive and flourish within and against racial capitalist, carceral, and imperial logics. Weaving expansive histories, peoples, and geographies together in an ethnographic screenplay of cinematic scenes, Maryam Kashani demonstrates how sociopolitical forces and geopolitical agendas shape Muslim ways of knowing and being. Throughout, Kashani argues that contemporary Islam emerges from the specificities of the Bay Area, from its landscapes and infrastructures to its Muslim liberal arts college mosques and prison courtyards. Theorizing the Medina by the Bay as a microcosm of socioeconomic, demographic, and political transformations in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, Kashani

Divorcing Traditions Katherine Lemons, 2019-03-15 Divorcing Traditions is an ethnography of Islamic legal expertise and practices in India a secular state in which Muslims are a significant minority and where Islamic judgments are not legally binding Katherine Lemons argues that an analysis of divorce in accordance with Islamic strictures is critical to the understanding of Indian secularism Lemons analyzes four marital dispute adjudication forums run by Muslim jurists or lay Muslims to show that religious law does not muddle the categories of religion and law but generates them Drawing on ethnographic and archival research conducted in these four institutions NGO run women's arbitration centers mahila panchayats sharia courts dar ul qazas a Muslim jurist's authoritative legal opinions fatwas and the practice of what a Muslim legal expert mufti calls spiritual healing Divorcing Traditions shows how secularism is an ongoing project that seeks to establish and maintain an appropriate relationship between religion and politics A secular state is always secularizing And yet as Lemons demonstrates the state is not the only arbiter of the relationship between religion and law religious legal forums help to constitute the categories of private and public religious and secular upon which secularism relies In the end because Muslim legal expertise and practice are central to the Indian legal system and because Muslim divorce s contested legal status marks a crisis of the secular distinction between religion and law Muslim divorce argues Lemons is a key site for understanding Indian secularism Yearbook of Muslims in Europe, Volume 7 Oliver Scharbrodt,Samim Akgönül,Ahmet Alibašić,Jørgen Nielsen,Egdunas Raciūnas,2016-04-26 Now in a new format with a more current and topical focus on a country level While the strength of the Yearbook has always been the comprehensive geographical remit starting with volume 7 the reports primarily concentrate on more specific and topical information The most current research available on public debates transnational links legal or political changes that have affected the Muslim population and activities and initiatives of Muslim organizations from surveyed countries are available throughout the Yearbook At the end of each country report an annual overview of statistical and demographic data is presented in an appendix By using a table format up to date information is quickly accessible for each country To see how these changes affect the articles please read this sample chapter about Austria The Yearbook of Muslims in Europe is an essential resource for analysis of Europe s dynamic Muslim populations Featuring up to date research from forty six European countries the reports provide cumulative knowledge of on going trends and developments around Muslims in different European countries In addition to offering a relevant framework for original research the Yearbook of Muslims in Europe provides an invaluable source of reference for government and NGO officials journalists policy makers and related research institutions Islamic Marketing and Branding T. C. Melewar,S. F. Syed Alwi,2017-12-06 Islamic Marketing and Branding Theory and Practice provides a concise mix of theory primary research findings and practice that will engender confidence in both students and practitioners alike by means of the case study included in each chapter Through three main parts Branding and Corporate Marketing Religion Consumption and Culture and Strategic Global Orientation this book provides readers from areas across the spectrum covering marketing organisational studies psychology sociology and communication and strategy with theoretical and managerial perspectives on Islamic marketing and branding In particular it addresses Insights into branding and corporate marketing in the Islamic context An introduction to Islamic consumption and culture rules and regulations in brands and consumption in Islamic markets An identification of how the strategic global orientation of the Islamic approach is practised and how it works in different Islamic countries such as emerging countries Readers are introduced to a variety of business and management approaches which once applied to their business strategies will increase their chances of successful implementation Addressing both theoretical and practical insights this book is essential reading for marketing and branding scholars and students as well as CEOs brand managers and consultants with an interest in this area Critical Muslim 06 Ziauddin Sardar,Robin Yassin-Kassab,2013-04-01 Considered look at Al Andalus through an Islamic cultural perspective Everyday Islamophobia Peter Hopkins,2025-09-17 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence Everyday experiences of anti Muslim racism include accounts of Islamophobia in public spaces in the school playground on social media and on public transport This book explores how Islamophobia pervades the daily lives of Muslims and those perceived to be Muslim drawing upon work by the author and leading researchers Everyday Islamophobia tends to be regarded as low level or trivial This book considers the influence of organisations agencies and individuals on those who find themselves negotiating its significant harms in education the community and online It concludes by exploring strategies to challenge and resist Islamophobia Public Relations in the Gulf Cooperation Council Countries Talal Almutairi, Dean Kruckeberg, 2019-04-05 The Arab world has engaged in public relations for thousands of years and the public relations literature provides multiple examples extending from ancient times However modern public relations is much more vaguely defined This is partly because the research surrounding public relations practice in the Middle East remains sparse especially in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries This book presents a clear picture of contemporary PR practice in this region providing a background on the evolution of public relations in each GCC country It shows how environmental factors historical cultural socio political and economic influence practice in the region It also contributes to public relations scholarship education and practice worldwide by providing new perspectives to those unfamiliar with its practice in this region This book will benefit scholars and practitioners alike through its informed analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of practice in the GCC countries as well as being of great benefit to the development of professional practice in the region
