Case Studies in

Islamic Banking and Finance Brian Kettell, 2011-10-07 Case Studies in Islamic Banking and Finance is a pioneering resource that provides practical insights into the real world of Islamic financial transactions and illustrates the complexities of this rapidly growing mode of modern finance. Based around 12 individual cases, the book stimulates discussion and develops the reader's understanding of Islamic finance by contrasting the theoretical concepts discussed in the author's companion text Introduction to Islamic Banking and Finance with practical real world situations. The cases cover core Islamic banking and finance topics including the Ijara Mudaraba and Musharaka contracts, Islamic mortgages for home finance, leverage and issues involved in opening an Islamic bank. Financial statement analysis for Islamic banks, the implications for fund management for equity investing and the impact of loan defaults on Islamic and conventional banks are also included. Each chapter concludes with a set of questions designed to test the reader's understanding of each case with suggested solutions at the end of the book. This book is a must-have resource for those wishing to apply their understanding of this complex subject and is an essential read for anyone seeking practical examples of how to apply the concepts in a real world environment.

An Alternative Approach to Liquidity Risk Management of Islamic Banks Muhammed Habib Dolgun, Abbas Mirakhor, 2021-01-18 Despite noticeable growth in Islamic banking and finance literature in recent years, very few published books in this area deal with supervisory and regulatory issues in Islamic banking, theoretically or empirically, and none with the critical issue of risks involved in liquidity management of Islamic banks. This unique book is the first of its kind in dealing with challenges these financial institutions face in the absence of interest rate mechanism and debt-based financial instruments. The book examines critically issues involved in managing the risk of liquidity management for these types of institutions including those stemming from Basel requirements It then offers an alternative regulatory framework more appropriately suited for such banks without compromising safety and security The book s unique features and innovative dimensions diagnostically differentiate between Islamic banks and conventional banks as related to liquidity management risks It proposes a risk sharing regulatory framework that once implemented would mitigate risks posed by balance sheet mismatches The book aims to assist regulators supervisors Islamic finance practitioners academicians and other relevant stakeholders

Regulation and Supervision of Islamic Banks Aledjandro Lopez Mejia,Suliman Aljabrin,Rachid Awad,Mr.Mohamed Norat,Mr.In Song,2014-12-12 This paper aims at developing a better understanding of Islamic banking IB and providing policy recommendations to enhance the supervision of Islamic banks IBs It points out and discusses similarities and differences of IBs with conventional banks CBs and reviews whether the IBs are more stable than CBs Given the risks faced by IBs the paper concludes that they need a legal corporate and regulatory framework as much as CB does The paper also argues that it is important to ensure operational independence of the supervisory agency which has to be supported by adequate resources a sound legal framework a well designed governance structure and robust accountability practices
