Roma in the Medieval Islamic World Kristina Richardson, 2021-11-18 Winner of the 2022 Dan David Prize for outstanding scholarship that illuminates the past and seeks to anchor public discourse in a deeper understanding of history Winner of the 2023 Medieval Academy of America Monica H Green Prize for Distinguished Medieval Research Honorable Mention in the 2023 Middle East Medievalists Book Prize In Middle Eastern cities as early as the mid 8th century the Sons of Sasan begged trained animals sold medicinal plants and potions and told fortunes They captivated the imagination of Arab writers and playwrights who immortalized their strange ways in poems plays and the Thousand and One Nights Using a wide range of sources Richardson investigates the lived experiences of these Sons of Sasan who changed their name to Ghuraba Strangers by the late 1200s This name became the Arabic word for the Roma and Roma affiliated groups also known under the pejorative term Gypsies This book uses mostly Ghuraba authored works to understand their tribal organization and professional niches as well as providing a glossary of their language Sin It also examines the urban homes neighborhoods and cemeteries that they constructed Within these isolated communities they developed and nurtured a deep literary culture and astrological tradition broadening our appreciation of the cultural contributions of medieval minority communities Remarkably the Ghuraba began blockprinting textual amulets by the 10th century centuries before printing on paper arrived in central Europe When Roma tribes migrated from Ottoman territories into Bavaria and Bohemia in the 1410s they may have carried this printing technology into the Holy Roman Empire

Treasures of Knowledge: An Inventory of the Ottoman Palace Library (1502/3-1503/4) (2 vols) Gülru Necipoğlu, Cemal Kafadar, Cornell H. Fleischer, 2019-08-12 The subject of this two volume publication is an inventory of manuscripts in the book treasury of the Topkap Palace in Istanbul commissioned by the Ottoman sultan Bayezid II from his royal librarian Atufi in the year 908 1502 3 and transcribed in a clean copy in 909 1503 4 This unicum inventory preserved in the Oriental Collection of the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences

Magyar Tudom nyos Akad mia K nyvt ra Keleti Gy jtem ny MS T r k F 59 records over 5 000 volumes and more than 7 000 titles on virtually every branch of human erudition at the time The Ottoman palace library housed an unmatched encyclopedic collection of learning and literature hence the publication of this unique inventory opens a larger conversation about Ottoman and Islamic intellectual cultural history The very creation of such a systematically ordered inventory of books raises broad questions about knowledge production and practices of collecting readership librarianship and the arts of the book at the dawn of the sixteenth century The first volume contains twenty eight interpretative essays on this fascinating document authored by a team of scholars from diverse disciplines including Islamic and Ottoman history history of science arts of the book and codicology agriculture medicine astrology astronomy occultism mathematics philosophy theology law mysticism political thought ethics literature Arabic Persian Turkish Turkic philology and epistolary Following the first three essays by the editors on implications of the library inventory as a whole the other essays focus on particular fields of knowledge under which books are catalogued in MS T r k F 59 each accompanied by annotated lists of entries The second volume presents a transliteration of the Arabic manuscript which also features an Ottoman Turkish preface on method together with a reduced scale facsimile

The Practice of War Aparna Rao,Michael Bollig,Monika Böck,2008-03-01 The fact is that war comes in many guises and its effects continue to be felt long after peace is proclaimed This challenges the anthropologists who write of war as participant observers Participant observation inevitably deals with the here and now with the highly specific It is only over the long view that one can begin to see the commonalities that emerge from the different forms of conflict and can begin to generalize From the Introduction More needs to be understood about the ways of war and its effects What implications does war have for people their lived in communities and larger political systems how do they cope and adjust in war situations and how do they deal with the changed world that they inhabit once peace is declared Through a series of essays that move from looking at the nature of violence to the peace processes that follow it this important book provides some answers to these questions It also analyzes those new dimensions of social interaction such as the internet which now provide a bridge between local concerns and global networks and are fundamentally altering the practices of war

Islamic Thought in the Middle Ages Wim Raven, 2008-08-31 The history of Islamic thought in the Middle Ages the impact of Greek philosophy and science and the formation of an own theological tradition is a long and complex one The articles in this volume dedicated to Hans Daiber one of the pioneering scholars in this field offer new insights from a variety of perspectives philological philosophical and historical The subjects range from Islamic philosophy and theology over the history of science the transmission into other medieval cultures to language and literature In addition to their specific discoveries they give an impression of the dynamics of medieval Islamic intellectual history as well as of the diversity of approaches needed to understand this dynamics

Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami, 2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition s preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art It addresses a central question in post classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature philosophy poetry medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice politics cosmology and desire In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world Aspects of Islamic Civilization A J Arberry,2013-10-16 Originally published in 1964 this volume gathers together extracts from many of Arberry's best known works and supplements them with a selection of previously unpublished translations The material therefore presents a vivid picture of the richness and variety of Islamic civilization from its origins to the late twentieth century Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen,Oleg Grabar,Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar,Marilyn Jenkins,2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world

Disability in Islamic Law Vardit Risppler-Chaim,2006-10-31 1 When I completed my book Islamic Medical Ethics in the Twentieth Century I was aware that I had omitted certain topics that I would have to return to One of these was the ethical treatment of disabilities and the disabled and of handicaps and the handicapped Since responses to burning medical dilemmas within the wide field of medical ethics was the main focus of that book it addressed ethical aspects of the doctor-patient relationship and contemporary Islamic debates on issues such as birth control and abortion artificial insemination organ transplants postmortem examinations and euthanasia The main source material was 20th century fatwas legal responses issued by various Middle Eastern muftis In this book I now wish to survey attitudes to the disabled and their disabilities as evinced by selected Sunni and Shi'i legal compilations throughout 1400 years of scholarly Islamic activity but also through contemporary fatwas The sources used for this book are a selection of medieval as well as modern legal writings medical books and articles in Arabic books and articles on medicine from an Islamic religious point of view Prophetic medicine and the Qur'an and medicine I have scrutinized all these for their consideration of people with disabilities and for the behavioral or social adjustments these people were offered mainly through legal rulings Routledge Revivals: The Seven Odes (1957) A. J. Arberry,2018-10-24 These seven poems translated by A J Arberry in 1957 are the most famous survivors of a vast mass of poetry produced in the Arabian Desert in the sixth century Arberry's introduction explains to the reader what was known about the poems and how they came to be preserved and distributed over time The epilogue particularly interrogates the authenticity of the poems and tracks how they have been transmitted over time This work will be of interest to those studying Persian and Middle Eastern literature and history
