Nationalism and Minority Identities in Islamic Societies Maya Shatzmiller,2005 The movement of nation building in Islamic societies away from the secular or Pan Arab models of the early twentieth century toward a variety of nationalisms was accompanied by growing antagonism between the Muslim majority and ethnic or religious minorities The papers in Nationalism and Minority Identities in Islamic Societies offer a comparative analysis of how these minorities developed their own distinctive identities within the modern Islamic nation state The essays focus on identity formation in five minority groups Copts in Egypt Baha is and Christians in Pakistan Berbers in Algeria and Morocco and Kurds in Turkey and Iraq While every minority community is distinctive the experiences of each show that a state s authoritarian rule uncompromising attitude towards expressions of particularism and failure to offer tools for inclusion are all responsible for the politicization and radicalization of minority identities The place of Islam in this process is complex while its initial pluralistic role was transformed through the creation of the modern nation state the radicalization of society in turn radicalized and politicized minority identities Minority groups though at times possessing a measure of political autonomy remain intensely vulnerable Contributors include Juan R I Cole University of Michigan David L Crawford Fairfield University Michael Gunter Tennessee Technological University Azzedine Layachi St John s University Richard C Martin Emory University Paul S Rowe University of Western Ontario Maya Shatzmiller University of Western Ontario Charles D Smith University of Arizona Pieterella van Doorn Harder Valparaiso University the late Linda S Walbridge University of Oklahoma and M Hakan Yavuz University of Utah Announcing the series Studies in Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict General Editors Sid Noel and Richard Vernon co directors of University of Western Ontario s Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict Research Group Studies in Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict is a series that examines the political dimensions of nationality in the contemporary world The series includes both scholarly monographs and edited volumes which consider the varied sources and political expressions of national identities the politics of multiple loyalty the domestic and international effects of competing identities within a single state and the causes of and political responses to conflict between ethnic and religious groups The volumes are designed for use by university students scholars and interested general readers

Governance of Islam in Pakistan Sarah Holz, 2022-10-15 Modern states increasingly seek to regulate religious expression practice and discourse This is profoundly evident at many levels of Islamic policy interaction from debates about the banning of the Muslim face veil in Europe to civic re education programmes for Muslim citizens in China Governance of Islam in Pakistan provides a systematic account of how interactions between multiple public and private bodies direct the regulation and standardisation of Islam in one of the largest Muslim majority states in the world Analysis centres on the institutional development of the Council of Islamic Ideology a constitutional body tasked with issuing advice to the executive and legislature about the compatibility of laws with Islamic principles Based on archival material that has been subject to little scholarly attention and interviews with Council members and staff of other state bodies Sarah Holz proposes governance as an analytical framework to study the negotiation of religious expression practice and discourse In contrast to the established Islamisation narrative which generally labels such religious institutions as mere rubberstamps in the process of policy making the study of governance offers an alternative approach that enables examination of the dynamic competition and cooperation among multiple actors Through collective interaction the Council and other relevant bodies are active players in the governance of Islam Insights gained from analysis of the ideational structural and functional evolution of the Council offers a Global South perspective on liberal democratic ideas about the functionality of the modern state and its institutional structure Issues of economic cultural and local international political influence bear strongly in governance analysis Engagement with the governance policy tool has applicability across the social sciences but is particularly relevant for South Asian Near and Middle East Studies     Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq Mirza Ghulam Ahmad M.A., Syed Mubashar Ahmad Ayaz, 2024-03-29 This is one of a series of books aimed at educating the youth about prominent figures in Islam In this particular book you will learn about the closest friend of our Beloved Master the Holy Prophet Muhammad sa You will be taken on a journey back in time to help you understand the type of society the Holy Prophet sa lived in and the powerful contribution that his beloved friend made to Islam Discover how he helped our Beloved Prophet sa bring the light of faith to the world     The Bhutto Dynasty Owen Bennett-Jones, 2020-09-29 A major new investigation into the Bhutto family examining their influence in Pakistan from the colonial era to the present day The Bhutto family has long been one of the most ambitious and powerful in Pakistan But politics has cost the Bhuttos dear Zulfikar Ali Bhutto widely regarded as the most talented politician in the country s history was removed from power in 1977 and executed two years later at the age of 51 Of his four children three met unnatural deaths Shahnawaz was poisoned in 1985 at the age of 27 Murtaza was shot by the police outside his home in 1996 aged 42 and Benazir Bhutto who led the Pakistan Peoples Party and became Prime Minister twice was killed by a suicide bomber in Rawalpindi in 2007 aged 54 Drawing on original research and unpublished documents gathered over twenty years Owen Bennett Jones explores the turbulent existence of this extraordinary family including their volatile relationship with British colonialists the Pakistani armed forces and the United States     Islamic Connections R Michael Feener, Terenjit Sevea, 2009 Well over half of the world s Muslim population lives in Asia Over the centuries a rich constellation of Muslim cultures developed there and the region is currently home to some of the most dynamic and important developments in contemporary Islam Despite this the internal dynamics of Muslim societies in Asia do not often receive commensurate attention in international Islamic Studies scholarship This volume brings together the work of an interdisciplinary group of scholars discussing various aspects of the complex relationships between the Muslim communities of South and Southeast Asia With their respective contributions covering points and patterns of interaction from the medieval to the contemporary periods they attempt to map new trajectories for understanding the ways in which these two crucial areas have developed in relation to each other as well as in the broader contexts of both world history and the current age of globalization     Communication Theory and Research Denis McQuail, Peter Golding, Els De Bens, 2005-12-15
