Sex and Desire in Muslim Cultures Aymon Kreil, Lucia Sorbera, Serena Tolino, 2020-12-10 What have different ideas about sex and gender meant for people throughout the history of the Middle East and North Africa This book traces sex and desire in Muslim cultures through a collection of chapters that span the 9th to 21st centuries Looking at spaces and periods where sexual norms and the categories underpinning them emerge out of multiple subjectivities the book shows how people constantly negotiate the formulation of norms their boundaries and their subversion It demonstrates that the cultural and political meanings of sexualities in Muslim cultures as elsewhere emerge from very specific social and historical contexts The first part of the book examines how people constructed discussed and challenged sexual norms from the Abbasid to the Ottoman period The second part looks at literary and cinematic Arab cultural production as a site for the construction and transgression of gender norms The third part builds on feminist historiography and social anthropology to question simplistic dichotomies and binaries Each of the contributions shows how understanding of sexualities and the subjectivities that evolve from them are rooted in the mutually constitutive relationships between gender and political power In identifying the plurality of discourses on desires the book goes beyond the dichotomy of norm and transgression to glimpse what different sexual norms have meant at different times across the Middle East

Israeli-Palestinian Activism Alexander Koenler, 2016-03-09 When do words and actions empower When do they betray Based on ethnographic fieldwork this volume tracks the repercussions of advocacy activism against house demolitions in unrecognised Arab Bedouin villages in Israel's southern internal frontier It highlights the repercussions of activism for victims fund raisers and activists The ethnographic episodes show how humanitarian aid intervention and indigenous identity politics can turn into a double edged sword Ironically institutional lobbying for coexistence and its interpretative categories can sometimes perpetuate different forms of subjugation The volume also shows how beyond the institutional lobbying novel figures of activism emerge informal networks create non sectarian cross cutting countercultures and rethink human environment relationships These experimental political subjects redefine the categories of the conflict and elude the logic of zero sum games they point towards a shifting paradigm in current ethno politics Koensler outlines an ethnographic approach for the study of social movements that follows multiple relations around mobilisations rather than studying activism in itself This perspective thus becomes relevant for scholars and activists engaged with the Israeli Palestinian conflict and those interested in global rights discourses
