Knowledge Intensive Business Services Marcela Miozzo, Damian Grimshaw, 2006-01-01 The book provides convincing findings against the hypothesis of KIBS as a factor of cognitive convergence or loss of diversity within our economies On the contrary KIBS are active agents of divergence and there is no universal pattern of the nature and the evolution of KIBS but national varieties It also shows that in order to well understand the inter organizational collaboration between KIBS and their clients and more generally KIBS dynamics and their performance transaction cost economies and agent theory should be complemented by other perspectives such as knowledge based approaches network theories modularity theories etc This book which is strongly oriented towards both policy and theoretical questions is a valuable addition to a body of literature which is still too scarce No doubt that it will stimulate further research in this field It is undoubtedly a high level knowledge intensive service provision about knowledge intensive business services Fa z Gallouj University of Lille France This book focuses on the development of Knowledge Intensive Business Services KIBS and the associated market characteristics and organisational forms It brings together reputed scholars from a mix of disciplines to explore the nature and evolution of a range of Knowledge Intensive Business Services Through an examination of KIBS sectors such as computer services management consultancy and R D services the contributions in this book argue that the evolution of KIBS is strongly associated with new inter organizational forms and that different country institutions shape the characteristics of these organisational forms The book provides a strong contribution to theory and empirical evidence on fast growing KIBS and their implications for innovation The book will be of interest to final year undergraduates and postgraduate students and scholars in the field of innovation studies organisation studies and comparative business systems across Europe

M. Ferreira, Mário L. Raposo, Cristina I. Fernandes, Marcus Dejardin, 2016-04-20 Research interest in the service sector has boomed in recent years as deindustrialisation became entrenched Instead of being regarded as merely supplementary to traditional industry and manufacturing services have generated progressively rising levels of growth in developed economies while at the same time coming to be recognised as major drivers of innovation Among the factors which have helped service companies notch up swifter growth rates than all other sectors are the outsourcing of such services by other sectors including the development of information and communication technologies and changes to the regulatory legal and market frameworks as well as globalisation and internationalisation The result is a cluster of highly innovative firms which can loosely be grouped under the heading of Knowledge Intensive Business Services KIBS Knowledge Intensive Business Services and Regional Competitiveness charts the development of these firms and explores their success through four mutually linked parts KIBS and industrial dynamics KIBS and their context KIBS and their contribution to regional competitiveness and economic development and finally KIBS and public policy This book is suitable for researchers and policy makers interested in the rise of these influential actors and their influence on regional competitiveness The Globalization of Advertising James R. Faulconbridge, Peter

Taylor, 2010-12-09 The Globalization of Advertising draws upon previously unpublished research to unpack the contemporary structure spatial organization and city geographies of global advertising agencies The book demonstrates how teamwork in contemporary advertising agencies intra organizational power relations and the distribution of organizational capabilities all define how global agencies operate as transnationally integrated organizations This in turn allows understanding to be developed of the role of the offices of global agencies located in the three case study cities Detroit Los Angeles and New York The role of these three cities as preeminent markets for advertising in the USA is shown to have changed radically over recent years experiencing both growth and decline in employment as a result of their position in global networks of advertising work networks that operate in the context of a changing US economy and the rise of new and emerging centres of advertising in Asia and South America When is Regional Beautiful? Bjorn Asheim, Olof Ejermo, Annika

Rickne, 2013-10-18 This book focuses on the importance of geography and space in explaining knowledge flows entrepreneurship and innovation During the last few decades spatial perspectives have enjoyed a growing attention outside the specific discipline of geography both in academic economics and among practitioners of policy and planning This book constitutes a selection of empirical contributions based on data from Canada the Netherlands Sweden Switzerland and the United Kingdom The studies address issues of the characteristics of intra vs interregional knowledge flows Weterings and Ponds the restructuring process when a large pharmaceutical Pharmacia closes activities Dahlgren and Valentin the different structure of university industry relationships in three countries with differential types of universities Broström McKelvey and Sandström the locational organization of knowledge intensive business services KIBS in a metropolitan region Shearmur and Doloreux the background of individuals in KIBS start ups Andersson and Hellerstedt and give a critical scrutiny of attempts to create Regional Innovation Systems Nuur Gustavsson and Laestadius The contributions thus address relevant contemporary issues regarding the structure of the service economy the role of academia and renewal of industries They provide valuable information useful to policy makers planners and academics Latin America's Emergence in Global

Services René A. Hernández, 2014 Business services have been one of the fastest growing export areas in emerging economies over the past decade The spread of information and communication technologies and the rise in trade liberalization have facilitated the global unbundling and offshoring of services activities from advanced to developing countries including those in Latin America This offshoring has gradually evolved into more sophisticated forms of business process outsourcing Several countries in the region are now in the process of further upgrading their services exports to participate in knowledge process outsourcing which includes research and development product development and more advanced vertical functions and activities in the value chain The empirical and analytical insights in this volume document how several countries in Latin America have entered the offshore services sector both through the attraction of multinational companies and the internationalization of domestic service suppliers The future of the offshore services sector in Latin America will depend on its ability to upgrade its knowledge and skill intensive product offerings This will call for the development of domestic technical capabilities the adoption of renewed industrial policies the promotion of backward and forward linkages and the continued upgrading of human capital and information technology integrated manufacturing

Innovation Orientation in Business Services Krzysztof Borodako, Jadwiga Berbeka, Michał Rudnicki, 2021-04-30 This timely book proposes a new perspective on building innovation in companies providing business services Implementing an innovation orientation paradigm based on six pillars strategy organisational culture human resources structure and process marketing and technology it sets out a framework for achieving innovation through knowledge management Innovation and Institutional Embeddedness of Multinational Companies Martin Heidenreich, 2012 This wonderful volume brings together contributions mainly from the innovation literature whose findings are in a sense quite familiar but which in this collection are juxtaposed in such a way as to highlight their common institutional underpinnings This is very much due to the efforts of the editor whose insightful introduction and editorial vision brings out several interesting and emerging themes from this collection of papers I think this volume breaks new ground in highlighting the embeddedness of MNE subsidiaries in multiple contexts and it will be of considerable interest to scholars engaged with institutional analysis However I also believe that researchers interested in regional embeddedness the geography of innovation and knowledge management will find new angles to their work in this collected volume Sarianna M Lundan University of Bremen Germany Multinational companies are crucial actors in a global knowledge based economy combining the advantages of global and locally coordinated production and innovation strategies with specific regional and national factors This book questions how MNCs can best exploit institutionally embedded knowledge explores the utilization of external institutionally embedded knowledge in corporate innovation processes and addresses the challenges of embeddedness The expert contributors draw on managerial economic geographic and sociological perspectives to explore the essential roles of regional and national knowledge infrastructures and the cultural and political environment of MNCs They build upon update and extend the discussion on the regional and national embeddedness of MNCs with new country case studies and comparative analyses focussing on the relationship between innovation in companies and regional studies Significantly the book also establishes a link between two important debates that have hitherto been largely disconnected Regional studies and international business studies separately address issues that fall within the scope of the book but do not provide an integrated analysis of the embeddedness of MNCs This pathbreaking book goes some way to fill this gap in the literature and as such will prove invaluable to academics R D managers regional policy makers and students with an interest in international business business economics regional studies and organization studies

Globalisation and Services-driven Economic Growth

Niels Beerepoot, Bart Lambregts, Jana Kleibert, 2016-07-28 Following drastic shifts in the spatial organization of goods production increasingly fierce competition now forces firms also to look critically at how to organize the production of services While digitization and advances in information and communication technologies have enabled firms to unbundle service production processes the increased global availability of skilled labour allows for the relocation of ever more of these processes around the world As a result a new geography of services production takes shape a geography that is defined by new interregional and international divisions of labour and held together by increasingly complex global services production networks This book examines how the reorganisation of services production alters relations between and generates different sets of challenges and opportunities for economic development in the Global North and the Global South Drawing from 11 case studies probing various aspects of services production in different parts of the world the book brings out the remarkable heterogeneity and transformative capacities of services It successively shows how global trade in services creates new interdependencies between services producing and services consuming regions reveals how services help to mitigate the impact of and contribute to recovery from economic crises in the Global North and demonstrates how services offshoring fosters economic development and service sector driven modernisation processes in the Global South The book s openness to the heterogeneous and dynamic nature of services production enlarges our understanding of which particular services in which spatiotemporal context have the capacity to generate good jobs contribute to productivity and drive economic growth The book stands out from other books in the field in that it combines perspectives on services driven transformations from both the Global North and the Global South and looks into the role of various services segments Based on pioneering empirical research and original data it offers a timely contribution to this growing debate The book provides valuable insights for students scholars and professionals interested in services services offshoring services driven growth and socioeconomic transformations in the Global North and South

Shearmur, Christophe Carrincazeaux, David Doloreux, 2016-11-25 The geography of innovation is changing Firstly it is increasingly understood that innovative firms and organizations exhibit a wide variety of strategies each differently attuned to diverse geographic contexts Secondly and concomitantly the idea that cities clusters and physical proximity are essential for innovation is evolving under the weight of new theorizing and empirical evidence The aim of this handbook is to break with the many ideas and concepts that emerged during the course of the 1980s and 1990s and to fully take into account the new reality of the internet mobile communication technologies personal mobility and globalization The handbook gathers a new generation of ideas and authors to contribute to the debate providing an empirically grounded critical appraisal of the prevailing knowledge on the geography of innovation The 28 original chapters written by a diverse range of scholars with widely differing views present fresh empirical evidence and new perspectives relating to how innovation plays out across space in an age where mobility has increased information is ubiquitous and globalisation has been realised Overall the dialogue between existing theory and new possibilities provides a unique and challenging appraisal of the connection between innovation agglomeration and space Offering cutting edge ideas in an accessible format this will be an ideal resource for students and scholars of economic geography and innovation studies The empirical evidence and analysis will also be of great value for policymakers and government officials Contributors include B T Asheim H W Aslesen A Bain P A Balland N Bradford A Bramwell C Brennan Horley S Breschi C Carraincazeaux C Chaminade R Comunian C De Fuentes D Doloreux D Eckert A Faggian M Ferru R D Fitjar K Flanagan C Gibson M Grillitsch M Grossetti G Harirchi F Huber A Isaksen S Jewel J Karlsen N Komninos J L Klein N Lee F Lissoni M Maisonobe J Mattes P McCann C T Noumedem R Ortega Argil s M Plechero A Rallet A Rodriguez Pose R Shearmur H L Smith B Spigel J Tallec E Tranos D G Tremblay F T dtling M Trippl E Uyarra C Yang C Wilkie D A Wolfe Innovationsaktivitäten wissensintensiver Dienstleistungen Matthias

Gotsch, 2012-02-21 Dienstleistungsunternehmen zeichnen sich durch eine hohe Innovativit t aus Besonders relevant sind hierbei die sogenannten wissensintensiven Dienstleistungen Jedoch l sst sich das Innovationsgeschehen der Dienstleistungsbranche nicht ohne weiteres wirklichkeitsgetreu abbilden da sich Dienstleistungsinnovationen nur schwer systematisch erfassen und messen lassen Daher ist es erforderlich eine berpr fung der bestehenden klassischen Indikatoren hinsichtlich ihrer Anwendbarkeit auf Dienstleistungsinnovationen vorzunehmen und somit die Notwendigkeit neuer und geeigneterer Indikatoren zu begründen. Ein vielversprechender neuer Indikator könnte die Berücksichtigung von Markenmeldungen bei den bestehenden nationalen und internationalen Patent- und Markenrechten sein. Dies erfordert zunächst den Nachweis, dass sich von den erfolgten Markenmeldungen Rückschlüsse auf die Innovationsleistung der Dienstleistungsunternehmen ziehen lassen. Ziel der Arbeit ist es daher, die Einsatzmöglichkeiten und Grenzen von Marken als Innovationsindikator genauer bestimmen zu können. Konkret soll mit Hilfe der Empirie die Frage beantwortet werden, ob eine statistisch signifikante Korrelation zwischen Markenmeldungen und Innovationserfolg der untersuchten Unternehmen existiert. Hierzu wird eine bestehende empirische Untersuchung ausgewertet sowie eine eigene Erhebung durchgeführt. Zuvor aus der Literatur abgeleitete Forschungshypothesen werden in ein Gesamtmodell integriert und mittels diverser Regressionsmodelle überprüft. Aus den durchgeführten Untersuchungen wird abschließend eine möglichst umfassende Beantwortung der Forschungsfrage hinsichtlich der Einsatzmöglichkeiten und Grenzen von Marken als Indikator für Dienstleistungsinnovationen ermöglicht.
